

Teacher Contract Talks Stalemated in Romulus

Negotiating Teams Continue Sessions Board of Education Asks Help of State Mediator

By HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

ROMULUS—Teacher contract talks on a new 1969-70 school year teacher employment contract between the Romulus Board of Education and the Romulus Education Association have reached a stalemate.

A Master Agreement covering the school system teachers (some 200 teachers) for the 1968-69 school year expired Aug. 15.

Negotiating teams have agreed to continue talks on "a day to day basis" with hopes of reaching a settlement prior to the opening of school, Sept. 2. William E. Jakad, assistant school superintendent and chief negotiator for the Board of Education, disclosed.

THE AGREEMENT to continue talks on a new Master Contract provides either party a 24-hour notice of discontinuance.

Jakad reported that the Romulus Board of Education has asked for mediation in its effort to bring about a Master

Contract with the Association, before the opening of school year.

The school board's chief negotiator also reported that the Board of Education and the Association have met periodically since May, 7, 1969 with both parties presenting offers and counter offers.

"The negotiating sessions have failed to produce a Master Agreement both in economic and non-economic areas satisfactory to both parties.

"In light of the critical factor of school opening only a short time away, the Board has recognized an impasse and has asked for assistance," Jakad said.

Daniel Gallagher, mediator from the State Relations Board has been assigned to the Romulus contract talks. He arrived last Thursday in an effort to bring about a settlement.

Members of the negotiating team for the Association are:

Wade Jones, chief negotiator, high school teacher; Miss Nancy Muck, high school teacher; Miss Nancy Shirley, junior high counselor; Mrs. Margaret VanLoo, elementary school teacher; Donald Shegar and Orville Duff, also elementary school teachers.

Besides Jakad, the Board of Education's team has School Superintendent Robert L. McConeghy.

Romulus Announces Junior Football Start

ROMULUS—The Romulus Athletic Club has announced the start of Junior Football Program for the upcoming football season.

Registration blanks are now available at Barhops Drive-In Restaurant, located at 12224 Huron River Drive in Romulus.

The Junior Football Program is presently shy 20 players. Some 78 boys, age nine to 12, are already registered, Don Ellis, president of the club, reported.

He added that all boys, (Continued on Page A-3)

Payroll Processing By Bank Adopted

ROMULUS—All payroll data processing of Romulus Township employees and administrative staff will be performed by the Manufacturers National Bank, Romulus Branch, Supervisor Roderick E. Smith, disclosed.

A contract calling for payroll processing by the bank has been approved by the Township Board at their Aug. 4 session. All that remains before actual operation of the contract terms is an approval by the township attorney.

Supervisor Smith reported that under this new payroll processing system a saving of some $2,000 per year to the township is realized.

The new system will eliminate payroll processing by major departments of government into one single agency thus freeing present complement of persons on payroll duties to other assignments.

It was previously published that National Bank of Detroit was to perform the contract. This is incorrect.

HAPPY BEAN EATERS—Brent Hopson, 10, of 12120 Schultz, and his companion, Don McMann, 10, of 12100 Schultz, are two of the happy youngsters that enjoyed a day at the Romulus Rotary's Barbecue held last Saturday.

FOR METRO RUNWAY

Army Will Close Nike Installation in Romulus

ROMULUS—The Army will close its Inkster Nike facility, located in Romulus Township, south of the airport, at the earliest possible time "consistent with good management and operational requirements," it was announced Thursday.

The closing of the installation will allow the Wayne County Road Commission to extend two runways at Detroit Metropolitan Airport at a savings of from $3½ million to $5 million.

Had the Nike site remained in operation, the Road Commission would have had to acquire additional land and pay for its relocation in order to extend the east-west and northeast-southwest runways as planned.

INFORMED OF the move in a letter from the Chicago office of the Federal Aviation Administration, William E. Kreger, chairman of the Board of Road Commissioners, said that the Government action would permit planned expansion at Metro at a greatly reduced cost.

"Speaking for myself and my fellow commissioners," said Kreger, "we want to thank all those in Washington who helped in accomplishing this closure."

"In a period where the need for airport expansion has become a pressing metropolitan problem, this is indeed good news. It is the elimination of one of the several problems in the way of needed expansion at Metro."

KREGER ADDED that the runway extensions were part of the airport master expansion plan which calls for $200 million in new facilities through 1985.

The Inkster facility's area of responsibility will be assumed by the Nike facility at Carleton in Monroe County.

Dean Aids Unit Citation

BELLEVILLE—Master Sergeant Gary D. Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Dean, 523 Riley Street, Dundee, Mich., has been recognized for helping his unit earn the U.S. Air Force Flying Safety Plaque.

Sergeant Dean is a data systems analyst with the 4780th Air Defense Wing (Training) at Perrin AFB, Tex. The unit was cited for 80,000 hours of accident-free flying over a 24-month period.

His wife, Mildred, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mallory, 47046 Willis Road.

Break-in at Helping Hand Shop Reported

ROMULUS—The Helping Hand Thrift Shop, center of charitable clothing programs for Romulus Township's needy children and families, was broken into and burglarized.

Wayne County Sheriff's detectives from the Sheriff's Road Patrol are investigating the break-in that occurred during the week-end.

The thrift shop is located in the basement of the Old Cory School Building, at 7335 Washington Street, just off Ecorse Road in Romulus.

The building is also used by Romulus Community Schools as a Special Services center. Entry into the building was made by breaking in a door.

Police said, taken from the Thrift shop were two recently donated portable sewing machines so "vital" to the shop's activities. Files were turned over and clothing racks tipped.

An inventory is being made to determine actual loss. Most of the clothing, and other items of the shop were either donated or prepared by volunteers for distribution to township's needy.

Other areas of the building were ransacked. Officers found liquor, dumped and contents strewn about.

Wayne County 4-H Fair Is A Smashing Success

BELLEVILLE—The 1969 Annual Wayne County 4-H Fair was a "tremendous success", officials of the Wayne County 4-H Fair Association, announced Monday.

Attendance at the 23rd 4-H Youth Fair broke all previous records. Some 75,000 persons crowded into the 4-H Fairgrounds during the six-day run of the Fair (Aug. 12-17).

The opening day of the Fair drew some 25,000 persons and for each of the remaining days of the Fair, crowds jammed the 500 to 800 exhibits on display.

OFFICIALS ADDED that this year's fair was bigger and better than any previous Fair. There were attractions and fun for both young and old alike. A well-attended 4-H Youth Clubs' Parade kicked off the annual event this year.

Miss Shalimar Beaty, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Beaty was crowned 4-H Fair Queen. She reigned over the many events and entertainment at the Fair and will for the remainder of her reign preside over future 4-H events and programs in the area.

Among some of the first trophies won that were announced Monday, the following members of the Eager Beavers 4-H Club won these trophies:

Charles Griffin in the Apprentice Woodworking Project; Connie Griffin in the Entomology Project; Judy Gramlich in the Junior Foods Project; and Ray Wilson in the Junior Vegetable Project.

AT THE 4-H Fair Parade, the Eager Beavers 4-H Club was awarded the following trophies: The Horse group received third place trophy and had the following members participating: Paul Grisson, Laura Williams, who where the flag bearers, Connie Griffin and Cindy Squires.

The two clowns Shelley Cole and Tine Sells also received first and second place trophies.

The Big Open Horse Show

AN 4-H Fair "Best Ever"

ROMULUS—The Big Open Horse Show held Sunday, Aug. 17, at the 1969 Wayne County 4-H Fair, Belleville, was the most successful one ever, according to Co-Chairmen, Frederick W. Hay and Carl W. Morris, who have conducted this show for the past ten years.

The two Romulus men are members of the Board of Directors of the Wayne County 4-H Fair Association, which sponsors the event.

All proceeds are used to further the 4-H Youth Program in Wayne County.

THE HEAVY DOWN-POUR at noon time failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the 325 horses and riders who competed in the all-day affair.

Scheduled to be held "rain or shine" the show did go on in spite of the weather and afternoon riding classes sloughed through several inches of soupy mud, but seldom did an entry fail to show because of the muddy field.

The afternoon Western Pleasure classes in the 13-15 age group, each drew some fifty entries which caused some of them to be divided into two classes and additional award ribbons given. The pony classes also proved to be exceptionally popular this year.

Well-known Horse Judge, Ted Whipple of Charlotte, handled the show and was well accepted by the contestants and spectators as well. Ringmaster was Mr. Harry Bengal from the Saddle Tramps 4-H Club of Livonia.

A TROPHY and six ribbons were presented to winners in each of the 21 classes. Handling these presentations were leaders and members of the Mustangs 4-H Club of Belleville, under their leaders, Mrs. Jackie Renier.

Special high point trophies were given to contestants earning the most total points in a special combination of three classes, as designated on the program. These winners were as follows:

Western (children 12 and under), Bruce McMillan of Walled Lake. Western (ages 13 thru 15), Joy McCann of Livonia. Western (16 years and older), Melissa Elliott of Ypsilanti. English, Suzanne Racz of Plymouth. Pony, Brian Beaty of Belleville and Jan Morgan of Pickney, tied.

THE SHOW was open to all 4-H members who showed their horses during the 4-H Fair week, as well as the general public.

The show chairman wish to sincerely thank the business people whose ads appeared in the Horse Show program. Also to everyone else who helped to make the affair such a big success.

Van Buren Names Horvath

BELLEVILLE—A new appointment to membership on the Van Buren Township Water and Sewer Commission was unanimously accepted.

Horvath, a Van Buren Township resident for 15 years is currently Wayne County engineer and superintendent of Pumping Station Structures and Operation for Wayne County since December, 1966.

HE WILL fill one of two

OVER-ALL VIEW—The Big Open Horse Show and judging was a highlight of this year's 4-H Fair. Shown above in an excellent view of both spectators and Horse Events. Some 500 to 800 exhibits were viewed by record crowds. Officials reported that the 1969 4-H Fair was the best ever.

BY TWO AGENCIES

Special Pre-Employment Training Survey Started

ELOISE—Carol Mason, manpower director for Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity, together with Lenore Delaney of Family and Neighborhood Services, announced a special pre-employment training survey, to be conducted by the two agencies. The survey started Aug. 12 and ends Aug. 30.

This survey is to locate unemployed or underemployed men between 18 and 50 who can pass the physical examination, are low income, and who live in the Downriver and Out-County Wayne communities.

The agencies expect to register 400 to 500 men for an employment training program that will be immediately established by a major automotive company, if the need can be demonstrated.

THE AIM of the proposed program would be to train low income men for permanent jobs such as skilled linemen, assembly men and machinists. A minimum of $80/take home pay would be paid during training.

Successful completion of the six-week course guarantees employment at $3.36 an hour plus cost of living. Each trainee would work a 40 hour week with no overtime. Work shifts will be scheduled from 6:30 a.m. to 3: p.m.

The project is slated to begin when a sufficient number of men have registered.

Applicants will be notified by the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity or the Family and Neighborhood Services agency.

Telephone applications can be made by calling the registration operator at TY 7-7777 Mondays through Saturdays, or telephone the OEO Neighborhood Action Center or Family Neighborhood Services office near you. Registration must be made before Aug. 30.

Mrs. Mason, manpower director for Wayne County OEO, commented.

"We feel this is a unique opportunity for our Agency to focus attention on the employment needs of low-income men from the Downriver and Out-County communities. A large and active enrollment will speak eloquently of the desire and will of our disadvantaged people to break the cycle of poverty that binds them."

Neighborhood Action Centers are:

Ecorse 383-4050 and 383-4431; Inkster 729-0560 and 729-0561; River Rouge 843-2939 and 843-7520.

Vietnam Conflict Kills Area Marine

BELLEVILLE—Private First Class Greg A. Barker, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Barker, of 8248 Marlowe, has been fatally injured while serving in the Vietnam Conflict.

Word of Pvt. Barker's death was received by his parents last Friday.

He was assigned to an artillery division of the U.S. Army, engaged in a military task on a Vietnam air strip.

The young soldier was killed when the airstrip came under heavy ambush fire.

The body of Pvt. Barker will be taken to his parents' homestead in Marmet, West Virginia directly from Vietnam.

He attended Belleville High School and entered military service in February, 1969. He arrived in Vietnam on Aug. 2, members of his family reported.

Mr. Barker is survived by his parents: Woodrow and Jackie Barker; sister, Mrs. Emerson (Lonna) Orr; brothers: Randy, Michael, all of Belleville; and Rodney Barker of West Virginia.

AT APOLLO II FETE Belleville Man Designs Flowers

BELLEVILLE -- Learning the art of floral arranging and design at Ballard's Florists paid off handsomely for Glenn Kettke, 18, of Belleville currently in Los Angeles, California.

Glenn, a 1969, Belleville High School graduate, participated in designing the floral arrangements and center piece at President Nixon's extraordinary state dinner honoring the Apollo 11 lunar explorers held at Century Plaza Hotel, Los Angeles, Aug. 18.

Word of Glenn's selection to work on the center piece was received Friday by his former boss and father-in-law, Bill Ballard, owner of Ballard's Florists, 495 Main Street.

"We certainly are proud of him," was the comment of Ballard when informed.

Glenn and his wife, Mary, daughter of the Ballards left for Los Angeles following their recent marriage to see his father, a beauty hair stylist in Los Angeles.

The elder Kettke arranged for Glenn to work at "Flowers by Michael," located in the hotel as an apprentice designer, the same position he held while working at the Belleville shop.

The Los Angeles flower shop was assigned the floral decorations at the State Dinner.

Irwin W. Stech, City Clerk

What's a nice car like you doing in a sale like this?

Pity the poor car that's loaded with banners, signs and stickers at model closeout time. You'll never find one of our beauties plastered with promises. It's so unnecessary. When all a car buyer really wants is straight fact. So without any ballyhoo, here's what we have.

Year-end prices. To meet... or beat... the competition. Great selection. Whether it be Chrysler or Plymouth, we probably have just what you want—in stock. Low pressure. The year-end shopper is important to us, and we don't forget it; you get the best in courtesy and service. Stop in and check our facts. And help end pushy year-end sales.

Your Chrysler-Plymouth Dealers tell it like it is.

* Age 65 years on or before tax day, Dec. 31, 1969.

REINER SAID: "If you have the above qualifications, contact our office so that we may put you on our senior citizen's mailing list. In brief, this could mean a reduction on your real estate taxes."

"Any questions you may have on this matter, please contact my office at the Romulus Township Hall, or call 941-0666."

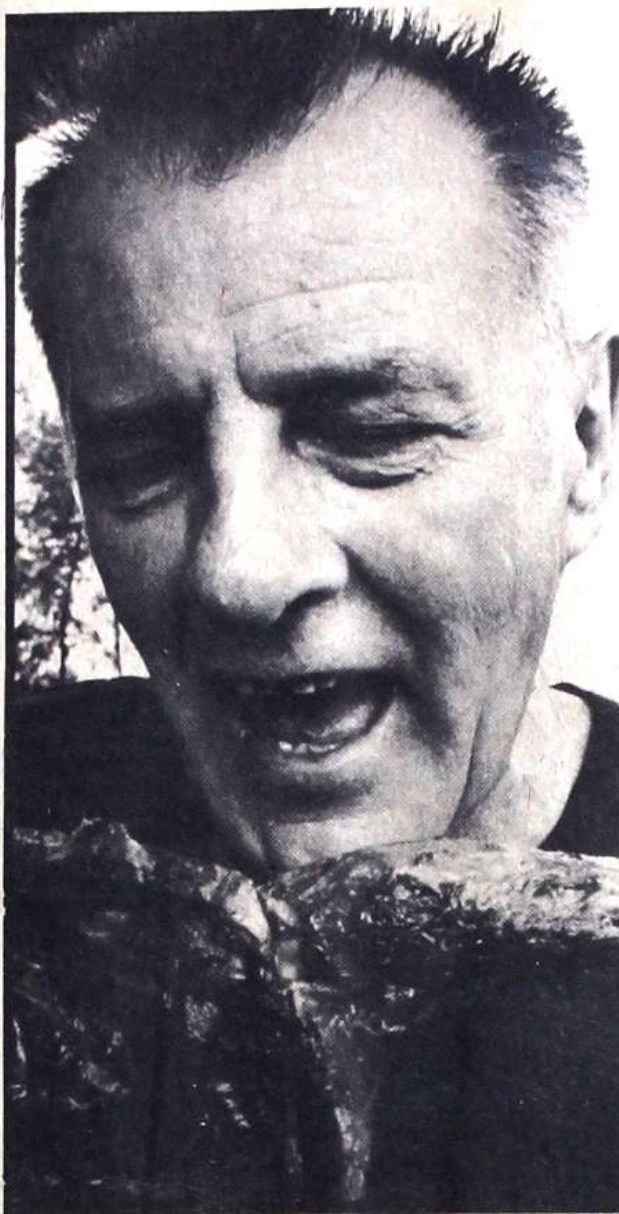

Housing Tour Conducted

ROMULUS—Members of the Wayne-Beverly Citizens District Council and the Romulus Urban Renewal Department toured housing developments in the City of Detroit on Saturday, Aug. 16.

The Michigan Consolidated Gas Company and the Metropolitan Detroit Citizens Development Authority (MDCDA) hosted the tour, George Wilhelm, Romulus Urban Renewal director, reported.

Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has purchased 15 acres in Romulus Township and plan to build some cooperative townhouses, and is interested in building some others in the Wayne-Beverly area, Wilhelm stated.

The MDCDA are the sponsors of "factory built" homes designed and constructed by the Labon Home Corporation of Detroit.

BOY, SOME CHICKEN! Floyd Forma, president of Romulus Rotary Club, seems to be saying just that. Anyway he seems to be too busy enjoying the barbecue chicken highlight of the annual Rotary Club's barbecue. Hundreds attending the annual event held last Saturday at Kennedy Park, located at Goddard Road and Huron River Drive, Romulus.

Sought by Huron

NEW BOSTON—The Huron Township Board of Trustees has approved the appointment of Water Commissioner.

Applications for the new post are being sought. Persons who are interested are asked to contact Mrs. Wilma Wilson, township clerk, at the Huron Township Hall, 37290 Huron River Drive.

The post of Water Commissioner, the first such administrative position in the Township, is urgently needed in the ever-expanding Huron Township, officials reported.

The salary for the successful candidate is to be based on education, experience and ability. Mrs. Wilson said.

who are to play in the junior football program must be registered and must take their physicals scheduled for Aug. 20 at the Romulus Junior High School.

Dr. E. Forrest Chapman will conduct the physical examination.

NEWLY ELECTED officers of the Romulus Athletic Club are Ellis, president; Ron Hopson, vice-president; Phil Renke, treasurer; Marge McCloskey, secretary.

Ellis also reported that the Western Suburban Football Candy Sale will start on Sept. 6. He asked all residents participate in the candy purchases as the sale is the club's only means of financing the cost of the football program.

The purchase of uniforms and football equipment is "expensive" and Ellis asked the assistance of all in the township.

Parking Ban Needed For Safety's Sake

We favor a fire hydrant-side parking ban on Westland residential streets to solve the problem of streets becoming so crowded that emergency vehicles cannot get through.

The City Council is currently faced with a decision on the matter, and we think the hydrant-side ban is the best answer.

For safety's sake, getting some of the automobiles off the streets in Westland is almost a necessity. The hydrant-side ban would eliminate something under 50 percent of the parking on the streets, which is not too much to pay for safety.

Fire Chief Ralph Savini, who sat on the first panel that studied parking problems, says he believes the hydrant-side ban is the best answer. He should know as well as anyone what it means to have a fire engine enter a subdivision, and then have to back out because a street is blocked by parked cars. That's something like living with a nightmare.

We disagree with those who feel the imposition of this parking ban would be such an inconvenience that residents would object. Some residents, indeed, might object, but the safety and welfare of all of the citizens of Westland is far more important than the convenience of even a few of the citizens who own a number of automobiles.

We hope the Council does not choose to reject the parking ban just because someone might get mad.

We also disagree with the plan put forth by Councilman John Markes to remove all cars from the streets at night by imposing a 3 a.m. to 6 a.m. parking ban. While this might sound less drastic at first, it will not measurably improve the safety of the community during the day time, and it will effectively impose a 100 percent hardship on residents during night time hours. However well motivated Councilman Markes may be, we cannot agree on the value of his proposal.

We think it is possible, as Fire Chief Savini suggested, that only the problem streets in the community be placed on restricted parking. This includes more than a few roads in more than a few neighborhoods. Some have felt that the restrictions would affect only older neighborhoods, but there are many newer subdivisions that could also use parking restriction.

It is never pleasant to talk about restricting the life of the citizens in the community. Nobody wants to be inconvenienced if it can be helped. But, today Westland must come to grips with the fact that our streets must be kept open for emergency traffic. Further delays could well have tragic results.

People in Inkster Must Care, Too

The recent "I Care About Detroit" day brought a surprisingly large number of people into that city to show that they did, indeed care about Detroit.

Surely people have always cared about Detroit, but in recent years revitalized groups like the KDB (Keep Detroit Beautiful) Teens and cultural activities, like the Freedom Festival and Summer Happening, are revitalizing the center city.

"I Care About Detroit" days aren't going to solve the city's monumental problems, like overcrowded schools and a diminishing tax base, but they are going to make Detroiters feel much more concerned about their city and interested in its future.

The point is the success of a city depends very much on the attitudes that its citizens have—the way they look at themselves and their community.

We are delighted to note an increase in civic activity in Inkster recently, sparked by the Jaycees. These dynamic young men are not afraid to take on city-wide tasks in their desire to make Inkster a better place to live.

They were the ones who got the annual Family Field Day back on its feet last year. This year's field day was even bigger and better under the sponsorship of the Parks and Recreation Dept., the Jaycees, VFW, Rotary, Boy Scout Troop 773 and the Senior Citizens. A record crowd of 2,000 Inksterites enjoyed a day of family fun.

Another recently project of the Jaycees was the formation of the Inter-Club Council, which includes the Elks, the Rotary and the VFW. Their current project is raising money for club insignia, to be placed with "Welcome to Inkster" signs on the borders of the city.

We are also happy to see that the Council is going to take the Goodfellows under its wing this year. This annual service project had flourished in recent years because no group has enough man power to turn it into a success.

These are heartening signs, for a city without Goodfellows is a city without a heart. As a matter of fact, civic and service clubs are the heart and soul of a city. In the years when Inkster's groups were less active, the entire community suffered. But now, with the clubs joining in a united front, we can honestly say that somebody cares about Inkster.

For too long the people of Inkster have been divided by artificial barriers. Residents of one area thought they were better than residents of another, members of one club or social clique did not associate with members of another, and persons of one race had no communication with persons of another race.

Everyone who lives or works in Inkster has a stake in its success. As the city goes, so will go your property values or your chance for a bigger and better job or business. Your future depends on Inkster's future. And, remember, if you don't "care about Inkster," nobody else will.

Her Wig Caused a Riot

By Joyce Hagelthorn

The other evening I bought another wig ... one with real human hair ... lots and lots of hair.

I thought it looked cool!

The next morning I put on my makeup and then I put on my wig, and I went downstairs to fry an egg for my bunkmate.

His head was in the sports section and it wasn't until he took his first bite of the egg that he glanced up. And for the first time in almost a quarter of a century he swallowed that egg without saying a thing. Actually, what he did, was choke.

With tears streaming down his cheeks and his face a psychedelic red, he gasped, "What the hell happened to your head?"

Now, this I had expected, and so I put it behind me and calmly ate my egg ... and said nothing.

However, it was a bit more difficult when I walked into my beauty salon later that morning. My operator took one look at me and gulped.

'If It Fits...!

Nice People Are Racists

By Jim Fitzgerald

"Old liberal Jim went swimming with the niggers again, and probably had watermelon for dinner."

So spoke a friend of mine upon my recent return from a weekend in Detroit. Yes, I said friend. Which brings us quickly to the subject at hand: the astonishment of several University of Michigan students who invaded Detroit to make a detailed survey of white attitudes towards blacks.

These door-knocking liberals found the prejudice they expected. Oh, white Detroit isn't as wary of Negroes today as in 1967, year of the riot. There are, in fact, a growing number of white Detroiters who recognize that blacks get a bum deal and something should be done about it. But please let someone else do it.

What surprised the surveyors was that truly "nice people" are racial bigots. Many of the students finally admitted they had been guilty of the same stereotyping they condemn when the other guy does it. They had decided all bigots were nasty rednecks who pick their noses and spit at black children. They weren't prepared for the graciousness and likeability of many whites who served the surveyors highballs and cookies along with sincere tech-ches over the plight of the Negro:

"But my neighbors would never speak to me again if I sold my home to a Negro."

"I had to change a lot of my thinking," admitted one surprised surveyor who had been well charmed by a neighborhood of polite racists.

Well, I'm surprised the U of M kids were surprised. They must have been brought up in a liberal vacuum. The world is full of nice people who couldn't possibly be unkind to an individual Negro. But they are certain that blacks "are really happier living with their own people" -- in some rat-infested ghetto. And they're dead certain the few violent, well publicized blacks are typical of all Negroes -- but they'd never judge all Italians by the Mafia.

A big part of the racism problem is racists who don't know they are racists and will deny it to the death. They have that one blind spot: They cannot put themselves into a Negro's shoes and understand the humiliation and fear and desolation and bitterness of being a second class citizen. Will this restaurant treat me politely or refuse to serve me? When my child is first called a nigger, how do I explain it to him? If I buy a home in this nice neighborhood, will the neighbors be friendly or will they throw rocks through my window?

How would you like to live with questions like that?

How can so many people be so wrong? I blame fear -- fear of the unknown -- or, to put it in modern jargon, a lack of communication. The U of M survey turned up a telling fact: whites who associate regularly with blacks are much less bigoted than whites who don't.

So I regularly take my family to a Detroit motel where at least half the customers are black. I want my children to sleep near Negroes, eat with them and swim with them. This is no big thing and no sermon is attached to these weekend vacations. I just want the kids to see what I see: black people are fat and skinny, loud and quiet, handsome and ugly, just like the white people. Black fathers beam proudly and a little foolishly at their children, the same as I do. Black mothers look sharp and yell warnings when Junior gets frisky at the deep end of the pool, the same as mothers everywhere.

And I am not surprised or angered when a good friend razzes me about "swimming with the niggers." He is a good man, and I know it. But he could be better.

He simply wasn't pushed into the right pool when he was younger.

Why Are We Treated Like Jerks?

By Dick McKnight

"Breathes there a man in Western Wayne, who wouldn't join me to maintain, that advertising circulars would make a saintly man complain."

That bit of verse comes from the heart of a man who in the last week has been told at least 20 times that he "may be a big winner" in a dozen contests, to "take good care of this number, it may be a winner," and "to return this form immediately for your free portrait of Che Guevara emerging armed from a dry goods store in Topeka."

Accompanying all of these "free" offers, and pie-in-the-sky promises of instant wealth, were pitches ahead at getting me to buy subscriptions to everything from Collier's to the Ladybug Lovers Gazette.

Each of the letters received this past week began with, "This is not a pitch to sell magazines like all the other letters you are receiving. This is the real thing. You could be the grand prize winner of a trip around the world on Tibetan Airways, with stops in 48 countries in five days."

At least 15 anonymous persons whose names are neatly signed to these letters in printed ink calculated to look as if it was personally signed have asked me the question of the week, "Would I lead you astray? Would I offer you something you couldn't live without?"

Just who do these mass circulation subscription agencies think they are? And how dumb must the American public be? I have a theory that says somebody must be responding to these things or they would be discontinued. Who can it be? What maladjusted human would buy the computerized pitch?

Ah, yes, the computer. This is the latest insult to our middle class intelligence. Each day some computer somewhere grinds out millions of letters which begin, "Dear Mr. Blank. How nice to talk to you, Mr. Blank. We are always happy to have someone from your town in blank, among our subscribers. Let me tell you, Mr. Blank, you won't regret reading this letter. We would just love to send you a subscription to Badmen's Bazaar at your blank, blank address, Mr. Blank."

The letter is just a form, but the computer neatly injects the correct names and addresses in the right blanks to make you think a personally typed letter is coming your way. Oh, what imbeciles we must seem to be, that this sort of tripe can continue.

Of course, it costs nothing to reply to these pitches, since self-addressed postage-paid envelopes are always included. They even come equipped with little windows so that mail sorters can see at a glance that you have or haven't won a prize, do or do not want to subscribe, and can then easily dispose of your reply in File 13.

Something similar happens when you are contacted by phone by a "Miss Jones" who is, mysteriously enough, calling from "downtown Detroit," with a fantastic offer, that will enable you to "receive absolutely free" a number of publications aimed at the "discerning reader." If you say OK, then a supervisor comes on the line just to confirm the fact that you really are a real live sucker. It must provide a pleasant break in her day.

Of course, we can all laugh about it, but, honestly who's laughing?

How many poor souls have been taken in by such pitches, and then hounded into insensibility and paranoia by bill-collectors. Furthermore, once you get on a sucker list, watch out. You will not get off of it until you can convince them that you have been dead for at least five years, have moved to Ticki-Ticki, or will shoot on sight the next subscription peddler you see.

Another tactic, if they come to the door, is to calmly say, "I'm very sorry, but this home has been quarantined with cholera."

Someday, of course, all of these people who do respond to these pitches may stop doing so and spare us all. It's just like television, the mass media peddlers choose the lowest intelligence level around and work up. It looks like it is going to be a long way up.

Sumpter Supervisor Blasts Homeowners Group

(Editor's note: The following statement in answer to a Recall Petition filed against some members of the Sumpter Township Board was issued by William Gouger, former township clerk and now supervisor of Sumpter Township.)

I think it is time the citizens of Sumpter understand just what this Homeowners Association is. In my opinion it is a farce and a front for a handful of disgruntled politicians.

It is my understanding it was started by Mr. Elmer Parraghi, Cecil Hall and Clarence Hoffman, and others with political ambitions.

Mr. Parraghi, as most citizens know, ran for supervisor and trustee and lost both times. To show you just how interested Mr. Parraghi is in good government, he registered to vote the same day he filed his petition to run for supervisor.

Mr. Hall was removed from the D.P.W. as a rubbish collector. He then ran for trustee and lost.

MR. HOFFMAN, who I understand is the Association's treasurer, was fired from the Police Department by Supervisor

Mike Kozma for refusing to take a test which is required of all police officers. He then worked with the opposition and unfortunately was elected trustee. Since then in my opinion he has continued to work with the opposition instead of the Township Board, thereby serving no useful purpose as a board member.

He is one of the loudest critics of the so called (musical chairs) in public, but at the Board meeting when the changes were made a roll call vote was taken and he voted in favor of everyone. This is a matter of record for anyone to see.

I am sure most of the residents are aware of the hoax played on the township citizens when the handful of politicians decided to form the Homeowners Association.

THEY PASSED out leaflets over the township asking the citizens to stop the garbage dump on Harris Road by attending a meeting at the Sumpter Township Hall. They stated the topic of discussion would be the dump. The truth is no application had been filed for a dump and therefore no discussion of a dump planned. From what I can determine this was a deliberate lie to get the people upset and to further the political ambitions of these few. But, I think by the time the meeting was over the people realized they had been misled by this group.

I also understand the Homeowners Association may face court action over this farce. I now understand the Homeowners Association is attempting to recall the Township Treasurer Mr. Bradley, Trustee Henry Majors, Trustee Mike Kozma and myself, with charges that are ridiculous, silly or false.

WE ARE charged with allowing sand permit without a public hearing. This is silly because there are no provisions anywhere for public hearings on sand permits. In fact, I realized the injustice done by sand permits in the past and asked and received from the Board changes in the sand removal ordinance. Under the new ordinance, passed approximately a year ago, no sand can be removed under a sand removal permit, lower than six inches above the road.

Another charge is not inspecting dumps and landfills and allowing violations to continue. The truth is anyone can see the improvement on the landfill on Willow Road. There is no longer any burning, or trash left uncovered.

The landscape has been greatly improved. We went to Circuit Court to try to close the landfill at Judd and Carleton West Road when it started, but the court did not uphold us.

We asked one person who now is in a high position in the Homeowners Association to assist us in Court on this case but he refused. It seems he only wanted to complain but not help close it.

ANOTHER CHARGE is failure to advertise for bids for police cars. We did advertise for bids at first, but it seems dealers don't notice the advertisements or don't care to bid because we received only one bid. After that we took the specifications to three dealers and asked them to send in sealed bids. We received more bids this way, although some still did not bid.

Another charge is failure to advertise for bids for rubbish removal. When we first took office the Township was broke and $9,000 in debt. The rubbish truck was beyond repair, but we tried to pickup rubbish, but the employees did such a terrible job it was clear this could not continue. Time was important so we requested the only local rubbish contractor we knew of to make us an offer to do this job. The offer was $550 per month.

AFTER GETTING a legal opinion that we were not required to take bids on this, we accepted the offer and the price on still the same today.

I would think anyone would be smart enough to know this is a very low price. It is less than we could do the job ourselves. Romulus pays $16,000 per year. Another charge is of me hindering the citizens rights to seize the Township records and minutes. This is downright laughable.

My orders to the girls in the office have always been that all township records are public records and are open to anyone who wishes to see them. But I think any citizen knows he can't go into a public office, be it township, county or State and SEIZE the records.

The other charges are just as ridiculous and I don't think the people will be fooled by this so called Homeowners Association. It might be interesting to ask Mr. Hoffman just what home he owns?

If this recall is successful it would take eight months and the cost of two elections to the taxpayers to elect new people. Then it would be only four months until the regular primary in 1970 and they would have to run again.

I THINK even this group would admit that we at least have an honest Township government, which some people believe to be rare today. It seems there are always some who would rather run it their way. Who would they replace us with? Themselves?

This recall is ridiculous and not in the best interest of the citizens of Sumpter Township.

CONGRATULATING A WINNER—Miss Janice Buckberry, of 6480 Rawsonville Road, was one of the 36 winners of the National Bank of Detroit's Mobile Money Museum's contest held at 4-H Fair. She is being congratulated by Irving Wallace, NBD assistant cashier and manager of the Belleville Branch of NBD.

Dr. Elwart Attends Homecoming

ROMULUS—Dr. Ray Elwart, D.C. of 37511 Huron River Drive, will attend the 1969 annual Homecoming of Palmer College of Chiropractic at Davenport, Iowa.

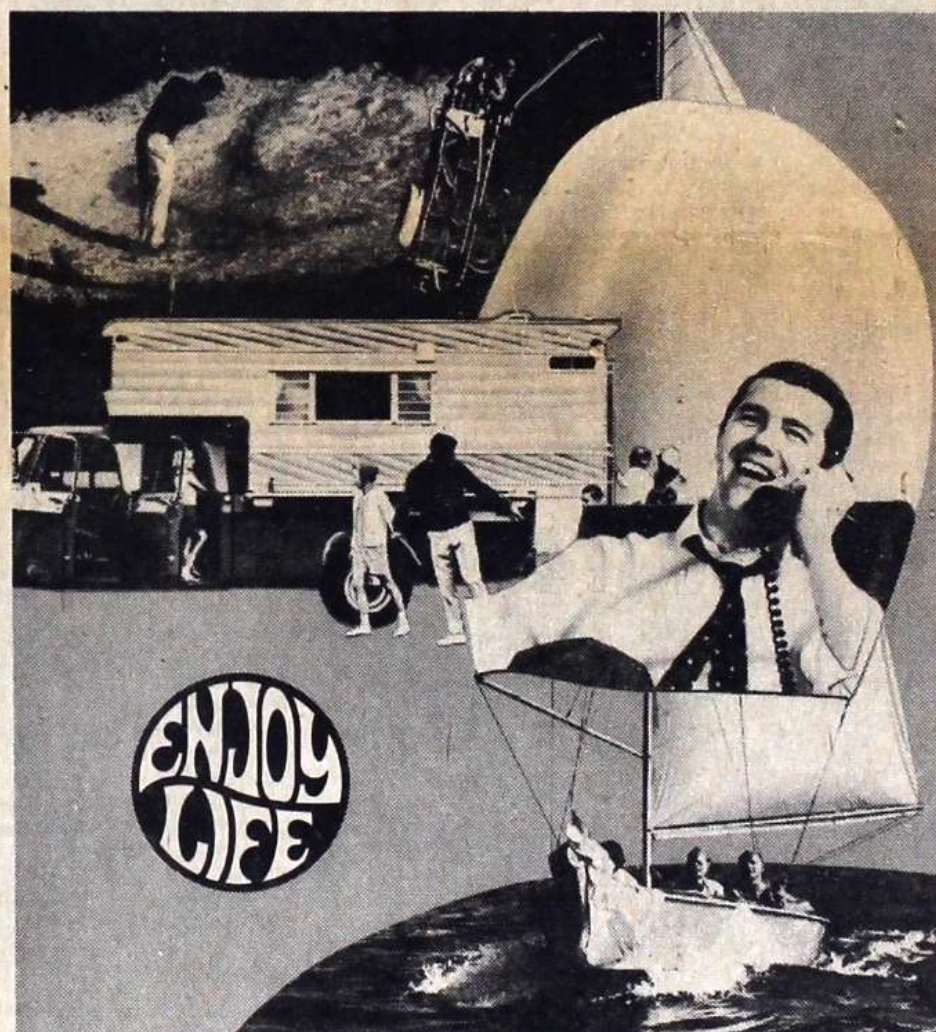

He will be among approximately 3,500 Palmer College alumni, wives and guests who will participate in educational and social events in the year's largest gathering in the chiropractic profession.

Dr. Elwart will be away from his office from Friday Aug. 22 and will reopen on Monday, Aug. 25.

HOMECOMING SPEAKERS include Al Capp, creator of the popular comic strip, "Li'l Abner"; Dr. Thomas B. Cureton, professor of education at the University of Illinois and one of the nation's outstanding experts in physical fitness; Charles Normal Sharpe, Jr., president and director of four insurance companies, and Dr. Donald Curtis, lecturer, author and teacher in the field of public relations.

Climaxing Homecoming activities will be the "President's Report" by Dr. David D. Palmer, head of the world's first and largest chiropractic college, and grandson of Dr. D.D. Palmer, who discovered the principles of Chiropractic.

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the Palmer College International Alumni Association will be held simultaneously with Homecoming.

Security Time Savings... the "decision makers" way to enjoy life!

Think of it... at the end of each calendar quarter Security Time Savers are faced with a delightful decision... what to do with their interest... interest that never seems to stop growing! We developed STS for people who can stand up under the quarterly "burden" of having to decide where to spend 5% interest, compounded continuously, as it piles up in their account! All it takes to get in, is an initial deposit of $1000. From then on, deposits of $50 or more, will do just fine. To make sure you are aware of how your money is growing, we provide a quarterly statement of activity. And for tax purposes, as well as your own records, we forward a year end statement.

And do we play "hard to get" when you want your money? Not on your life! You can withdraw all, or part of your savings at any time during the first 10 days of each calendar quarter, or with 90 days (the minimum legal requirement) written notice. If you haven't opened a Security Time Savings Account yet, get with it! If you have, prepare yourself... the next interest payment is closer than you think! And, by the way, if the thought of having to make periodic decisions is standing between you and opening an account, relax... we'll be happy to add the interest to your account and let your money continue to multiply, or mail you a check. "Enjoy life," with a Security Time Savings Account!

Hawaii, West Coast on Agenda

Back in Belleville after touring the West Coast and Hawaii are Mrs. W.C. Schroeder and sons, Michael and Jeffrey, of Savage road. In the Islands, they met up with the eldest of the Schroeder men, Tom, who is stationed with the U.S. Navy on Midway Island. Joining them for their 10-day stay were Tom's girlfriend, Lynn Polino, of Livonia, who made the trip out with them.

Getting back to California, they were met in San Francisco by Dorothy's son-in-law, Charles Becker, who took them home to see his wife, Sharon, and to introduce the newest member of the family tree, seven day old Tara Christen. Of course the other Becker girls, Michele and Leslie, were happy to see their grandmother and uncles as well.

Leaving there and flying to Los Angeles, their plane was met by Dorothy's sister and husband, Hazel and John Kosadner, who were their hosts for the remainder of July at their home in Riverside. Disneyland, San Diego's Sea World, and Las Vegas were highlights of their visit.

In Corona, they were houseguests of another sister and brother-in-law, Sally and Charles Brooks, and from that spot they toured Hollywood and drove to Mexico. While at the Brooks', they saw the filming of Glen Campbell's new movie and Jeff was able to get the autographs of all the principle players.

Meeting them as their plane landed at Metro was the man of the house, Walter Schroeder, who was mighty glad to have his family home after their month's absence.

Her Birthday Causes Big Splash

PART OF turning 10 and having a big brother is being tossed in the family swimming pool -- a little initiation on having two digits in your age. It was brother, Mike, and his buddy, Greg Wilson (here from San Jose, California), and a cousin, Johnnie Bokon, who ganged up on the poor little birthday girl, Cindy Hudge.

Being a 'Special' birthday (the kind that are observed by the Hudge clan), Cindy had her entire group of cousins in to share the festive occasion. Held on the lawn, the picnic table was centered with a special doll cake made by the honoree's big sister, 11-year old Judy. Sitting down to cupcakes and ice cream, then dashing to the pool were Tim and Susie Hess, from Ypsilanti; Susie and Carol Smith, Nancy and Nora Hudge, and Sherie, Tommie and Gary Hudge. Good friends, Sheila and Suzie Stabnau, also joined in the fun.

While the younger set was at play, their mothers enjoyed refreshments served by hostess, Flo Hudge. Also attending was Cindy's grandmother, Mrs. Walter Hess, from Brighton.

Sears Family Re-unites

THE ANNUAL reunion of the Belle Sears family was held Sunday, August 2, at Victory Park. Members from Paducah, Kentucky, Tucson, Arizona, Detroit, New Boston, Flint, Pinckney, and Belleville (some 108, in all) were listed as attending.

Recorded on Mrs. Sears' family tree were three great-grand-daughters, one great-great-granddaughter, and one great-great grandson. A buffet dinner, election of officers, games, and contests were all part of the afternoon get-together.

Mrs. Sears, who will celebrate her 90th birthday in December, enjoyed the games and activities as much as the youngest in the clan.

Luncheon Fetes Bride-Elect

CAROL CLARK, of Ypsilanti, the prospective bride of Kenneth Henderson, was the honored guest last Wednesday as Carol Haveranek entertained at a bridal luncheon. Ken is the son of Roland and Maxine Henderson, of Ypsilanti, formerly of Belleville.

The noon menu of seafood salad, tuna casserole and coconut pie (the contribution of guests Pat Ray and Stephanie Box) was enjoyed by the 11 invited guests: Betty Clark and Maxine Henderson, of Ypsi; Phyllis Hopeman, from Dearborn; and Belleville ladies, Madeline Muse, Betty Savage, Bea Raymond, Virginia Turney, Helen Miller, and Maxine Miller. A social afternoon followed with Carol opening the many lovely gifts for her future home.

The young couple plan a September 13 wedding.

See Trio Off

THE LEONARD HUDGES, who were in Michigan for a three week's visit, and her mother, Mrs. William Sietz, left Friday, August 8, from Metro Airport for the Hudge's home in Tarpon Springs, Florida. Seeing them off on their Delta flight were members of their family who the night before had gathered for a farewell party at the home of Ed and Mary Anne Hudge, on Haggerty road.

Vacation Time

Jim and Penny Pearson along with Harold and Sandy Ackron motored up to the Grayling area for a 3-day vacation.

While there they visited (the State Fish Hatchery, Animal Land Zoo, Bear Mountain and Fred Bear Museum. A trip down the Au Sable river and a drive through the National Guard Tank Trails were also enjoyed.

On Saturday, they visited Mackinac Island and the Catholic Shrine in Indian River also Call of The Wild Museum in Gaylord.

The foursome returned Sunday evening after a full week-end of pleasure.

WOMEN Of The MOOSE

Women of the Moose, Belleville Lodge No. 1135 held their Chapter Night, Aug. 11.

Four new members were enrolled that night. They were Agnes Wood, Mickey Wise sponsored by Millicent Block and Carol Athan and Elizabeth A. Nelson sponsored by Lila Wilson.

The dark horse was won by Martha Morton. Luncheon was served after the meeting.

Aug. 20 is Executive Officers meeting.

Aug. 23 is Enrollment Night for the Loyal Order.

Aug. 25 is our Business Meeting Night.

Our fish fries will be starting Sept. 5.

We wish to extend our condolences to Peggy Reese and her family on the death of her son-in-law.

Former Belleville Girl Weds Pilot In Westland

Our Saviour Lutheran Church, in Westland, was reserved Saturday, August 9, for the wedding of Sandra Elizabeth Mild, of 35 Sadonia Avenue, Coral Gables, Florida, and Gifford Glenn Rowland, Jr., of 121 Westview Road, Upper Montclair, New Jersey.

Others on the esquire side were Wayne E. Plute, of Metuchen, New Jersey, brother-in-law of the bride; and Samuel H. Mild, of Ypsilanti, a cousin.

A reception for some 125 guests followed at Rogalle's Lounge where Mrs. Mild received in an ice blue summer satin ensemble. A mint green silk coat-dress costume was the choice of Mrs. Rowland for her son's wedding. Both mothers added orchids to their frocks.

Following a two-weeks honeymoon in Europe, the newlyweds will be at home at 121 Westview Road, Upper Montclair, New Jersey.

Prior to her marriage, Sandra was a stewardess with Eastern Airlines. Her husband, a Pilot for Eastern, is stationed in New York City.

Following the wedding rehearsal August 7, Mrs. Ann Rogalle and daughter, Barbara, entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a dinner in their Harmony lane home.

Seasonal proms and monthly social activities complete her busy schedule.

St. Stephen's Is Scene Of Robinson-Moran Vows

Vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums adorned the altar of St. Stephen's Catholic Church, New Boston, as Irene Louise Moran, of Flat Rock, became the bride of Frank E. Robinson, of Belleville.

Father Alexander Wyrwal presided at the five thirty o'clock ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Moran, of 30977 West road, Flat Rock, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Robinson, of 319 W. Columbia avenue, Belleville. Some 200 friends and relatives attended the August 2 wedding and witnessed the double ring nuptials.

 ESCORTED TO the sanctuary by a close friend of the family, William Deeb, of Taylor, the bride appeared in a Chantilly lace creation. Fashioned with a bouffant skirt, her gown featured a square neckline and long, tapered sleeves. A petaled headpiece of crystals and pearls secured her pouf veil of silk illusion and she carried cascading white carnations.

As her sister's maid of honor, Dolly Moran, wore a pink satin, floor-length frock accented by a white lace train attached at the shoulders. Her velvet headbow was edged with a brief veil and she held an arrangement of pink carnations.

Wearing identical ensembles in yellow were the bridegroom's sister, Carol Robinson, and another of the bride's sisters, Eleanor Moran.

The bride's two little sisters, Connie, seven, and Loraine, five, carried out their roles as flowergirls.

 TOM ROBINSON was asked to serve as his brother's best man. AE/3 Dave Abbot, of Patuxent River, Maryland; and Fred Densil, of Ypsilanti, were ushers.

The two ringbearers were nine-year old Tony Robinson, son of the William Robinsons, of Garden City; and seven-year old Terry Miller, son of the William Millers, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

 THE AMERICAN Legion Hall, in Flat Rock, was reserved for the reception which followed. An approximate 300 guests attended and were greeted by the bridegroom's mother who wore a yellow lace ensemble and a white orchid corsage.

Following a week-end honeymoon in Detroit, the newlyweds departed for their new home at 508 Essex street, Lexington Park, Maryland where the bridegroom is serving with the U.S. Navy.

The new Mrs. Robinson graduated from Huron High School and prior to her marriage was employed at the Southgate Post Office. Her husband is a former student of Belleville High School.

Noisiest Nation Is America: Noisiest Room Is The Kitchen

• And Headaches For Women Are The Results •

America is the noisiest country in the world, say the experts, and more and more of us are becoming "noised." Furthermore, scientific tests show that the noisiest room in the home is the kitchen, where mother spends so much time. It's no wonder that women--and homemakers in particular--suffer more nervous tension headaches.

As machines, automobiles, trucks and household equipment have increased, the sound levels to which we are subjected have increased an average of one decibel a year for the past 30 years. We are, one might say, victims of sound pollution.

Contributing to the raised decibels in the average suburban home are as many as 20 small motors, which may whirl and buzz in competition with the radio, hi fi, TV, the snarl of power mowers outside, the roar of jet planes overhead, the telephone, and the yelling children. Heaviest sound pollutants inside the home are the rumbling automatic dishwasher (60-70 decibels), the garbage disposal unit (70) and refrigerator at low setting (30-40). Add the roar of the washing machine and the whistle of the air-conditioners for a raucous background.

Although some of these sounds drown out others, the typical result is an average decibel level of 80--equivalent to that of a big-city street corner. (A steady over-all reading above decibels can cause permanent hearing damage.) One expert observes that "the noise level in a modern kitchen is just below that of the cockpit of an old DC-3."

While acoustical "soundproofing" has lowered the decibel level in offices, homes are still vulnerable. In high-rise apartments, paper-thin walls, back-to-back plumbing, and electrical appliances in neighboring apartments reverberate like drumheads. Poorly designed ventilating and cooling systems make excellent speaking tubes between apartments.

When Dr. Lee E. Farr, of the University of Texas Graduate School of the Biomedical Sciences, measured home noises he found the kitchen to be the loudest room. "The sound is at such a level of intensity," he reported, "that if one were exposed to it for a full working day over an interval of time, (damage to hearing) would result. Sound pollution is perhaps the most personal of all the manufactured environmental bane let loose upon an unsuspecting public."

Investigators have shown that a constant barrage of noise can cut down efficiency and bring sleeplessness, poor digestion and nervous strain in most people--which in turn can lead to nervous tension headaches.

In experiments at Bellevue Hospital, New York, Dr. Foster Kennedy, the eminent brain specialist, once demonstrated that noise has a definite detrimental effect on the mind. He discovered that bursting a blown-up paper bag raised the pressure on the brain of a nearby patient higher than did morphine and nitroglycerine, the two most powerful drugs known for increasing brain pressure.

Even "little" noises can create a great nervous strain. For centuries it was known that a constant noise, like the ticking of a clock, could drive prisoners out of their minds.

Some physicians believe that there is a direct relationship between noise and such stress diseases as peptic ulcer, heart disease, colitis and hypertension, as well as the more common tension headache. Recently, researchers at the University of South Dakota reported that noise levels common to man raised the cholesterol levels and enlarged the hearts of laboratory animals during experiments.

Obviously, many "background" sounds cannot be controlled by an individual. It's no secret that noises caused by trucks, jets, air hammers, power mowers and garbage collectors can bring on a nervous tension headache. Women, because they are most in the home, are more susceptible to noise-caused stresses. One result is that women, according to medical researchers, suffer more headaches than men, and they recur more often.

But you can do a lot to insure a heavenly hush in your home, say acoustical engineers, by following these suggestions:

1. Curtains or draperies prevent large expanse of glass (picture windows) or hard wall surfaces from reflecting sound. Covering a wall with a well-filled bookcase also helps.

2. Carpeting can absorb more than half of airborne noises. Upholstered furniture and pillows like wise soak up sound.

3. Consider an acoustical ceiling for your kitchen and playroom. They are said to absorb up to 75 per cent of excess noise.

4. To help keep out much of the outdoor noise, install central air conditioning, which means your windows will be closed. To make sure windows are tight-fitting, apply weather-stripping. Install anti-rattle hardware on windows. Window air conditioners should have the proper vibration mounts, to prevent rattling.

AREA CLERKS AT INSTITUTE—University College, the continuing education college of Syracuse University has completed a "successful" first Annual Institute for Professional Clerks (Aug. 10-16). Left to right are: Fred Dawe, Jr., clerk at Fremont, Mich.; Mrs. Dorothy Lents, clerk at Madison Heights; Alfred J. Perry, clerk at Romulus; and Mrs. Kathleen N. Callan, clerk at Oak Park.

Perry Attends Institute for Clerks

ROMULUS—University College, the continuing education college of Syracuse University has announced successful completion of the first Annual Institute for Professional Clerks held from August 10-16.

James LeFlore, program administrator for community affairs, said, "There is a widespread realization that the complex nature of the professional clerk's position in government is rapidly changing. The purpose of the Institute is to provide the skills and information needed to meet these changing demands."

Romulus Township clerk

Alfred J. Perry and municipal clerks from 105 other cities, towns and villages attended the Institute at the Continuing Education Center, 110 Roney Lane, Syracuse, New York. They came from 21 states as well as Canada and Nigeria.

THE FACULTY members were led by professors from Syracuse University, with support from visiting professors from surrounding colleges and universities as well as business and government executives with specialized knowledge of the clerk's job. The faculty used lectures, case studies, role-playing, panel sessions and problem-solving assignments.

LeFlore said that the Institute is built on graduated levels of learning. Institute I will be followed up by Institutes in 1970 and 1971. The subjects will include classes on communication, publicity and public relations, letter writing, current trends in law enforcement as well as municipal law and budgeting.

Besides adding to their professional skills, the Institute wants to "stretch the mind" of the entire student body by discussing such subjects as impact of TV on our society, and the reasons for campus unrest.

NEW BOSTON EVENTS

Snior Citizens Hae Busy Summer

BY SHIRY HAVENSTEIN
3-4258

Mrs. Leona Niemann entertained the Huron Senior Citizens with slides of Lebanon their last meeting. Their 1st recent meeting was to a picnic August 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Miller, of Harris road. Preparations are being made for the group to attend the Michigan State Fair on Aug. 25.

Mrs. Joseph Balogh

of Prescott road, and their daughters enjoyed a two-weeks visit from their niece, Mary Ann Balogh. During her stay, she spent some time learning to bake under her Aunt Evelyn's watchful eye. The baking projects were as much fun for Mary Ann as attending the Wayne Centennial and going on shopping trips with her cousins.

Mary Anne is the 11-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Balogh, of Ida.

Wins Top GM Award

YPSILANTI-Bertram R. McCuiston, an inspector, received a $10,000 Suggestion Award from J.S. Garlic, general manager of Hydramatic Division of General Motors Corporation. McCuiston's Suggestion resulted in a manufacturing improvement on the Torque Converter - a component of the Turbo-Hydra-Matic Transmission - Model 400 and 425, which are produced by the Division.

McCuiston becomes the first General Motors employee in this area to receive the maximum $10,000 award under the recently modified provision of the G.M. Suggestion Program.

McCuiston, who has been a Hydra-Matic employee since 1952, resides in Warren Michigan. He and his wife, Ruth, are the proud parents of nine children.

Friends Toss Housewarming For New Townhouse Dweller

by PEARL MORRIS
Phone WH 1-1187

Ten lady friends gave a housewarming party last Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Katherine Clark at her apartment home in the Townhouse at Beyerwood Apartments, Romulus.

Present for a planned meal and visiting were Gerry Wooden, Gladys Thompson, Addie Keller, Josie Oakley, Catherine Coash, Lola Taylor, Gertrude Burkes, all of Romulus, and Vivian Ford of Belleville. Olive Feight was unable to be present. The ladies presented Mrs. Clark with a lovely gift. The honoree formerly lived on Washington Street.

Mrs. Betty McLeod and children, Greig, Becky and Carrie, of Wayne, Mrs. Gerry Wooden and Mrs. Katherine Clark, both of Romulus, visited Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rakotz and boys of Essex Street, who were camping last week at Portage Lake.

VACATION CHURCH School classes for both Romulus and New Boston United Methodist Churches are continuing this week at the Romulus Church (Olive Street). The classes are held daily from 7 to 8:30 p.m. and will end on Friday evening, August 22.

Mrs. Josephine Davies, 80, mother of Mrs. Dora Reich of Wick Road, passed away last week at the Killingbeck Nursing Home, Wayne, where she had been a patient for the past year. The deceased was a lifetime resident of Ecorse and a Gold Star mother, having lost a son in service in 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nowicki and two children returned home Saturday to 29231 Northline after vacationing for two weeks at their cottage on Fisher's Lake at Three Rivers, Michigan.

BELLEVILLE BREVITIES

EARL BOSTEDER is now recuperating at his home on High Street after having been a patient at New Grace Hospital for a month following a fractured hip received in a fall. He arrived home Wednesday, Aug. 6, and is able to spend part of the day at the store in his wheelchair.

He is very grateful for all the cards and calls he received while in the hospital.

Frank Mills, 16 year-old son of Frank and Mary Mills, of Second Street, met with a serious accident on Thursday, Aug. 7. While helping on a farm near Tipton his leg was badly mangled in an auger used in cutting ensilage. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, where his leg was amputated above the knee on Monday, Aug. 11.

At present time he is doing nicely and would be glad to hear from his friends. His room number is 753.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cullin and family, of Litchfield, Ohio, were week-end guests of his parents, the Arthur Cullins of Henry Street.

Last Monday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Marty Schaefer of Biggs Street were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. & Mrs. Frank Uchman and Lynne, of Marion, Illinois, Miss Evelyn Schaefer, of Ypsilanti, and the Robert Schaefer family of Wear Road.

W. Harold (Bus) Roberts has been a patient at St. Joseph Hospital since Tuesday, Aug. 5, where he has been under observation and treatment for future surgery. Room number is 351.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haft were guests last weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis at their cottage on Long Lake near Hale. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Curtis of Belleville Road also were present. While there they called on the Walter Nolffs and the Don Partridge families at their cottages on the same lake.

Due to an oversight in an item last week the name of Mrs. Evelyn Irwin of Cleveland, Ohio, was omitted. It was at her home where Mrs. Katharine Havey, Dianne and Elmer were guests.

Seeking Players

Belleville - The Belleville Little League Football will be accepting applications for this year's football season on Saturday, Aug. 23, behind the Belleville High School.

Boys must be between the ages of 9 and 12 as of Sept. 1, and must weigh from 65 to 120 pounds.

Some 10-thousand acres of privately owned marshland near Lake Manitoba, Canada, has been set aside for development of wild waterfowl. About half the acreage includes an area to attract geese.

SNUGGLE UP A LITTLE CLOSER-With their F-4E Phantom jet fighters only a few feet apart, the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds flight demonstration team sweeps up into formation loop at speeds over 500 miles per hour. From this picture it is evident why the famed flight squadron holds audiences spellbound the world over.

Air Force Thunderbirds Are Ambassadors in Blue

The world famous U.S. Air Force Flight Demonstration Squadron will highlight Michigan Aviation Week at the gigantic demonstration of United States Air Force at Selfridge Field, September 6-7.

Their history is spectacular. It all began 16 years ago during the turbulent end of the Korean War; the placid skies over Williams Air Force Base, Arizona, were rent by the howl of jet engines.

Four F-84 aircraft painted red, white, and blue rolled and looped over the audience below, always keeping their wingtips overlapped three feet.

This was the first show of the United States Air Force Air Demonstration Squadron, the Thunderbirds. Based at Luke Air Force Base, near Phoenix, Arizona, the Thunderbirds had been created a month before to demonstrate to people in the United States and overseas the capabilities of the men and machines of the United States Air Force.

Needless to say, the Thunderbirds were representing in 1953 a very different Air Force from today's. As a separate service, the United States Air Force was only six years old. The hottest jet fighter then in action was still not capable of breaking the sound barrier in level flight.

The technological and scientific advances leading to an Air Force of ICBMs and Mach 3 airplanes have been spanned by more than 1,300 Thunderbird aerial demonstrations.

The team now flies an average of 100 air shows a year, making them the nation's busiest precision flying team. To reach show sites located from coast to coast and even overseas, the Thunderbirds must cover 175,000 air miles in 250 days of travel. To date, the team has flown an estimated 2,000,000 miles, or the equivalent of 65 times around the earth.

The ranks of the 5,000 spectators who watched the first air show in 1953 have been swelled by nearly 75,000,000 aviation enthusiasts from all of the 50 states and more than 40 countries of the Free World. The largest single Thunderbird audience gathered in Chicago, Illinois, when on July 5, 1959, two-million people jammed the waterfront of Lake Michigan.

In 11 deployments overseas, the Thunderbirds have demonstrated American friendship by meeting millions of people on a person-to-person basis. During the 1959 trip to the Far East, the team performed 31 shows during one 40-day period.

After returning to the United States, they received the 1959 MacKay Trophy, an annual award made for the most meritorious flight of the year.

The Thunderbirds have performed in five different aircrafts. They began in the straight-wing F-84G and in 1955 switched to the swept-wing F-84F. Both aircraft were built by Republic. The F-84's, however, were subsonic planes, and it was not until 1956 that the Thunderbirds could shatter the sound barrier with their new North American F-100C's.

The team retained the C-model Super Sabre until 1964 when they spent part of a season in the Republic F-105B. Returning to the F-100D later that year, the Thunderbirds flew Super Sabres until November, 1968. Nineteen sixty-nine not only marks the Thunderbirds' seventeenth season, but also the introduction of a new aircraft - the McDonnell Douglas F-4E Phantom II.

The most important part of the Thunderbirds, however, is the people in the squadron. All of them are volunteers, chosen in competition with other specialists throughout the Air Force.

In 1953, there were four demonstration pilots, three other officers, and 15 enlisted maintenance specialists. Today, there are 93 Thunderbirds, seven rated pilots, two nonrated officers, and 84 enlisted support personnel.

Czech Airline Buys Three Russian Jets

CSA-Czechoslovak Airlines has placed an order for three Soviet-built Ilushin IL-62 four-engine intercontinental jets.

Delivery of the big Russian airplanes is expected prior to the inauguration of Prague-New York service now slated for May, 1970.

CSA, which will soon open Chicago and West Coast offices in the U.S., in addition to its New York facilities, now operates long-haul European routes with IL-62 equipment.

The carrier was granted U.S. rights under a recent bilateral agreement signed by the two nations.

MAN OF 1001 JOBS-The many items required for passenger comfort on the giant jet airliners today are almost unbelievable. Men behind the scenes such as Wilbur Mixon, Fleet Service Agent at American Airlines, based at nearby Metro Airport, make sure that all the items are packed and on board the airliner when it departs. The special air kits comprise of everything, including tiny aspirin, baby feeders, magazines, childrens items, and special first aid kits for the stewardess.

Air Siam Hikes Service

Trans World Airlines is providing management assistance to Air Siam, the Thai national carrier, during that airline's developmental period. Air Siam plans to inaugurate transpacific air service between Bangkok and Los Angeles this autumn.

No Ticket Taker Is Needed

Tomorrow's airline passenger won't have to stand in line at the airport waiting for his ticket.

All he will have to do—once his reservation is made—is insert his Air Travel Card into an automatic ticketing machine, press a few buttons to indicate flight number and class of service, and the ticket will drop into his hands.

something out of the movie "2001," it came a step closer to reality with the announcement by the Air Transport Association of America and the International Air Transport Association that the widely used Air Travel Card is getting a new magnetic stripe which will allow it to be used in automatic ticketing machines.

developed and will be in limited use in some airports before the end of the year.

Reserve Now For Moon Trip

Trans International Airlines, continuing its "charters to the moon" program, has issued 15,000 posters to travel agents and airlines throughout the world. This is the first airline to publish lunar travel posters. Agents are invited to sign clients for future lunar "tours." Tickets are being processed at the TIA Communications Center in Oakland.

While this futuristic procedure may sound like something out of the movie "2001," it came a step closer to reality with the announcement by the Air Transport Association of America and the International Air Transport Association that the widely used Air Travel Card is getting a new magnetic stripe which will allow it to be used in automatic ticketing machines.

Prototype models of the machines are now being developed and will be in limited use in some airports before the end of the year.

Area Men Begin Training

BELLEVILLE-Two men of the Belleville area have been assigned, as Army Privates in the United States Army Training Center, Armor (USATCA). Ft. Knox, Ky., where they will receive their initial eight weeks of military training as members of Company D, 16th Battalion, 4th Brigade.

Upon completion of basic training, these men will receive at least an additional eight weeks of either advanced instruction or on-the-job training to qualify each man in a specialized military skill.

The area soldiers now undergoing the Basic Combat Training are: Pvt. James G. Bujak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bujak of 14872 Haggerty; and Pvt. Ladon Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hall of 20966 Haggerty.

Morgan City, La. is a shrimp and oyster shipping point.

Inman In Field Training

NEW BOSTON-Kenneth C. Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Inman of 28450 Nieman, is participating in a U.S. Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps (AFROTC) field training encampment at Plattsburgh AFB, N.Y.

During the encampment, cadets become familiar with the life and activities on Air Force bases and can examine career opportunities in which they might wish to serve as officers.

Other highlights include survival training, aircraft and aircrew indoctrination, small arms training and visits to other Air Force bases.

Cadet Inman, a 1966 graduate of Catholic Central High School, Monroe, Mich., where he was a member of the National Honor Society, is a member of the AFROTC unit at Michigan State University.

Dog Pound Completed

BELLEVILLE-Completion of renovating and enlarging of a new Van Buren Township Dog pound, located at the intersection of Tyler and Hannan Roads was announced by Edward C. Stoelton, township supervisor, at the Aug. 12 meeting of the Township Board.

The improved dog kennels and related facilities at the pound were completed at the cost of $675, Stoelton told Board members.

Dog Warden Douglas Kobisch reported that the renovating and enlarging of the Township Dog Pound was a necessary project and eliminating "unbelievable" sanitary conditions of the old kennels.

HE STATED that persons wanting their dogs to be picked up can do so by merely calling the Township Hall. The service is entirely free.

He reported of instances where pet owners have abandoned their pets on the highways. These pets either get hurt, sick, die of starvation or in some instances turned into vicious animals.

He announced that the Dog Pound now has outside kennels for pet owners to bring their unwanted dogs without cost.

All they have to do, he stated, is to leave the animal in the outer pen and fill out a card.

Nurse Corps List New Program

WAYNE-The Army Nurse Corps has announced a new promotion program for newly commissioned nurses.

The new program became effective July 1, and places additional emphasis on professional education and experience in determining the rank a new Army nurse will be awarded on entering active duty.

As an example, under the former program registered nurses with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing entered the service as 2nd lieutenants. Now they may enter as First lieutenants.

The new qualification system gives additional credit to professional nurses with advanced degrees and broad nursing experience and makes it possible for them to be commissioned as captains or majors.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR a commission in the Army Nurse Corps include being a registered nurse, male or female, between 20 and 33 years of age, single or married and in good physical condition.

Each applicant's qualifications, education and experience are reviewed by the Surgeon General's Office where a final determination is made on eligibility and rank when commissioned.

In New York City in 1907 it was estimated horse-drawn vehicles traveled at an average speed of 11.5 miles per hour. Today, due to heavy traffic, it is estimated cars and trucks average 8.5 miles per hour.

City Gets $4,442 in Road Funds

BELLEVILLE-Motor Vehicle Highway Fund Collections for April, May and June are being distributed by the State Highway Department.

The distribution will bring the sum of $4,442 to Belleville. In the same quarter of 1968, monies received by Belleville totalled $4,154.

State Highway Director Henrik E. Stafseth reported that net receipts of the Highway Fund during the three-month period amounted to $73 million, an increase of $5.9 million, or 8.9 percent, compared to the same period of 1968.

Receipts are derived from license plate fees and a state tax on gasoline and diesel fuel.

RENOVATED AND EXPANDED-Van Buren Township's Dog Pound, located at the intersection on Tyler and Hannan Roads, has been renovated and enlarged. New inside kennels have been installed and outside kennel facilities for the depositing of unwanted dogs by residents has been erected. Residents can call Dog Warden Douglas Kobisch at the Township Hall, 697-9169 for free pickups or bringing them to the Dog Pound shown above.

INTERIOR VIEW-New and enlarged dog cages have been constructed in the Van Buren Township's Dog Pound. Note the cleanliness of the pound's interior facilities. The hours of the Dog Pound are 8 to 9:30 a.m., week days except Saturday and Sunday, when the hours are 9 to 10:30 a.m. Free pickups of unwanted dogs is available by calling Dog Warden Douglas Kobisch at the Township Hall, 697-9169.

Kelsey-Hayes Appoints Public Relations Director

ROMULUS--Ronald J. Hurta, 33, has been appointed to the new post of director of communications for Kelsey-Hayes Co. The appointment was announced by Robert A. Maxwell, the company's vice president in charge of marketing.

Hurta, who comes to Kelsey-Hayes from the Detroit Free Press, will function in the areas of public relations, advertising, sales promotion and employee communications. He had been with the Free Press for 10 years, the last five as the newspaper's assistant promotion director.

A native of Chicago, Hurta holds a bachelor of science degree in journalism from Marquette University in Milwaukee. He was graduated in 1956.

RONALD J. HURTA

His background also includes stints as a sportswriter for the Milwaukee Journal and as a reporter-editor for the Associated Press bureau in Chicago.

Hurta is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism society, and the Detroit Press Club. He resides in Westland, a Detroit suburb.

Approves Assessments

BELLEVILLE--The Van Buren Township Board approved special assessments for three new sewer districts. The assessment amounts and estimated costs for the sewer extensions in the three Van Buren districts were reported as follows:

In District One, Morton-Taylor-Tyler Roads' section, assessment was given as $86,666 and cost estimated at $508,810.

In District Two, embracing Ryznar Road, Denton Road, Stanley Road, Allen Avenue, Beck Road and North Shore Drive, assessment was reported at $89,647 and costs at $616,320.

In District Three, covering Sheldon Road, Savage Road, Huron River Drive, and Alman Avenue, assessment is $156,791 and cost at $874,870.

Kiwanis To Spearhead War Against Drugs

ROMULUS -- Kiwanis International will spearhead a program in each community it serves aimed at mobilizing the area in an all-out war against drug abuse according to Alfred J. Perry, President of the Kiwanis Club of Romulus Township.

The program, which is designed to inform the public in general, and parents, teachers, and students -- at all levels -- in particular, on the extent, kinds, and dangers of drug abuse is called "Operation Drug Alert."

The program was announced at the 54th annual convention of Kiwanis International at Miami Beach, earlier this month, the president said.

IN ANNOUNCING the new program, the club president pointed out that Kiwanis is well aware of the fact that campaigns aimed at stifling drug abuse are already under way in many communities.

However, he said, Kiwanis believes that, because of the diversity of occupations, professions and contacts within each club, the organization can unite various drug education campaigns within the community for all-out war against drug abuse.

Operation Drug Alert is the result of a survey undertaken late last year by Kiwanis which posed this question to 500 leaders in all walks of life in the United States and Canada:

"IN YOUR judgment what do you identify on our national scene as the greatest single need or opportunity for service to which a men's service club organization can apply itself in the next two years?"

On the basis of recommendations received from this group of business, professional, church, education, legislative, association, labor union and media leaders, Kiwanis International officials identified the need for a program of drug abuse education as providing the most significant challenge for its member clubs throughout Canada and the United States.

Kiwanis International, set up Operation Drug Alert as its "major emphasis" for the next year or two years. This kind of programming is unique with Kiwanis, the club president said, because heretofore Kiwanis International has promoted as many as a dozen community service programs simultaneously each year.

"Clubs will continue to carry out a variety of programs of their own selection," he added, "but each committee will devote at least part of its effort to Operation Drug Alert, in addition to its regular concerns."

HE SAID details on his own club's involvement in the program would be announced just as soon as plans are finalized.

The Operation Drug Alert plan has been reviewed by The American Medical Association, The American Pharmaceutical Association, the National Association of Retail Druggists, and the National Coordinating Council on Drug Abuse Education and Information, among others.

Advice and counsel have been sought from these and other related organizations, as well as from other associations whose members are interested in the problem, like the National Health Council, the United States Department of Justice and the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

U-D's 'Carnival' Offers Entertaining Night

BY ALAN KROKER
ANP Amusement Critic

"Carnival," the Bob Merrill-Michael Stewart of the movie "Lili," has joined the repertoire of the University of Detroit's summer musical season to provide an entertaining evening despite a few obvious flaws.

Like the preceding effort, "Little Mary Sunshine," "Carnival" has a lot of surface charm and style. In the case of "Mary," which was all surface fun and style, this was enough. But "Carnival" is supposed to run a bit deeper. There is some serious business beneath all the capering of Lili and the magician and the puppets. This director James W. Rodgers failed to adequately bring out.

Lili, of course, is the waif who joins the carnival and works with Paul Berthalet's puppets. Berthalet was a famous dancer crippled during the war who buries his bitterness behind the puppet stage, erupting periodically as he sees Lili, with whom he is falling in love, attracted to a worthless magician in the troupe. Lili grows more and more to disassociate the angry Paul from the gentle puppets; only when she has matured enough to get over her magician can she realize that Paul and the puppets are one and the same.

Not enough of this comes through. Kenneth Wilson's Paul is particularly two dimensional. By far the most expective characterization was that of Paul's partner Jacquot, played by Jeffrey Winner. Claudia Teeley sung her Lili especially well. The choreography was a bit crowded for the small stage. Several times too much was put in to too little space creating severe traffic problems.

JOHN WEBSTER'S "The Dutchess of Malfi" concludes the University of Michigan's summer repertory. The theater has used one all-purpose set for its complete repertory, but while it fit so snugly for "Hogan's Goat" it seems rather pointless for "Dutchess," whose staging was rather drab.

"Dutchess" is a violent play, suited for more colorful dressing with not too much subtlety. And director Richard Burgwin gave it an especially blood-and-thunder staging, with some of the characters prone to overacting. Ferdinand, the antagonist, at times looked like he was about to throw a fit at times. A director should harness such youthful exuberances better.

"Dutchess" is Jacobean drama, following Shakespeare and the other Elizabethans by a generation. Jacobean drama, although not totally different from Elizabethan, did evolve in a generation and the psychology of the characters is notably complex. In this case it concerns the widowed Dutchess of Malfi, under severe pressure from a menacing brother Ferdinand, who chose instead to love a man beneath her station and had three children by him with dire consequences.

Burgwin's staging, full of sound and fury, leads several of the young cast astray, notably Victor Lazarow as Ferdinand, but Madeleine Ramsey handles the title role well.

ROWAN AND MARTIN have forsaken "Laugh In" completely for "The Maltese Bippy," a thoroughly uneven mystery-comedy whose highs and lows are a mile apart. "Bippy" style pictures were most familiar a generation back; Abbott and Costello made dozens of them. In fact "Bippy" is an Abbott and Costello picture so closely in style and tone it might have been written for them. The plot is similar, whole scenes are virtually identical (remember the A & C scene where Costello is afraid to be left alone, Abbott promises not to wander far and Costello has to test him?-"Bippy" uses it intact) and even some of the dialogue is familiar.

Rowan is cast as an Abbott type, the conniving heel who always suckers the stupe into ridiculous situations. Martin, the Costello type stupe, owns a house bord-red on one side by a graveyard and on the other by some Munster-type neighbors who may or may not be werewolves. Actually the whole setup turns out to be fake atmosphere designed to cover the real action, a search for a fabulous missing jewel.

The opening title sequences and the climax are wicked parodies of the genre, but the middle sags into almost unbelievable cliches and absurdities. Rowan and Martin would be well advised to either use some of their "Laugh In" writers on future screen outings or stick to the Sock-it-to-me schtick.

Well, shet mah mouth massa and shades of Simon Legree y'all, de "Slaves" has hit town and it just might be the year's worst movie (the year isn't over yet but "Slaves" is going to be hard to beat). "The Slaves" is a pre-Civil War south picture with Stephen Boyd as a ruthless plantation owner, wipping de slaves and raping dere wimmen. His mistress is a neurotic Negress, Dionne Warwick, who seems like something out of Chekhov. The abominable plot is complemented by abominable acting and an abominable script. De verdict, chillin, in case y'all hasn't already guessed, is: abominable.

Film Series to Start At Schoolcraft Sept. 12

Fourteen outstanding foreign and American film programs have been scheduled for the 1969-70 film series at Schoolcraft College, according to Gordon Wilson, English instructor at the college who is taking over direction of the program this year from John Kyriacopolous.

The highly successful film series, which has gained a constantly growing and enthusiastic audience among area residents as well as students, under Kyriacopolous' direction, is again offered by the college as a community service on a free admission basis, Wilson said.

Films are shown on Fridays in the theater in the Liberal Arts Building. Evening performances are scheduled for 8:30 p.m. Afternoon showings have been arranged for eight of the films, and are scheduled for 2 p.m. All foreign films have English subtitles.

Ample free parking is available close to the Liberal Arts building in a well-lighted, paved parking lot.

The 1969-70 schedule announced by Wilson:

Sept. 12-LaSymphonie Pastorale (France), 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Sept. 26-Black Orpheus (Brazil), 8:30 p.m.

Oct. 10-Comedy Tonight (Chaplin, Turpin, Laurel and Hardy, Will Rogers, W.C. Fields), 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Oct. 24-Long Day's Journey Into Night (U.S.A.), 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Nov. 14-Seance on a Wet Afternoon (Britain), 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Nov. 21-Blow-Up (Italian-American-British), 8:30 p.m.

Dec. 5-Seven Experimental Films, 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Jan. 9-Peer Gynt (U.S.A.), 8:30 p.m.

WSU Extends Run Of Studio Plays

"The Homecoming" and "The Sport of My Mad

Mother," the "mini-rep" season in Wayne State University's Studio Theatre, downstairs at the Hilberry, will continue to play through Aug. 29, instead of Aug. 23, as originally scheduled.

This is the first season of public performances in the Studio Theatre, previously used only as a classroom theatre. The performances of "The Homecoming" and "The Sport of My Mad Mother" have been so well received by critics and audiences that additional performances were necessary to satisfy the demand at the box office.

The "mini-rep" season is part of the Hilberry Summer Theatre Festival, which also includes performances by the Hilberry Repertory Company of its national award-winning production of "A Flea in Her Ear," a revival of its U.S.O. tour production of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," and "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" for children.

Complete schedule and ticket information may be obtained by calling the Hilberry Box Office at 577-2972.

Plymouth Revs Up For Fall Festival

A small chicken barbecue-corn roast of 14 years ago that attracted less than 125, mostly members of the Plymouth Rotary Club, has mushroomed through the years into the greatest community-wide program in southeastern Michigan, with more than 100,000 expected for this year's 14th renewal.

The event is the Plymouth Fall Festival, a four-day and night affair which starts on Thursday, Sept. 4 and climaxes with the Rotary club chicken barbecue on Sunday, Sept. 7.

Chairman Ron Coosaia and Business Manager Tony Flum, who guide the executive committee, predict the 1969 Festival will be the biggest ever. It is strictly a non-profit program with the proceeds for community functions.

"There is more interest on the part of participants, the free attractions in the bandstand on each of the four days and nights are the best ever and the general feeling is that the festival will attract more people than at a previous time," said Coosaia.

This year's renewal opens on Thursday, Sept. 4, with an old-fashioned German sauerkraut dinner served by the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club; Friday, the Lions Club will present a fish dinner at noon and in the evening; Saturday, the Kiwanis Club will have a pancake festival from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and the Jaycees will have a beef rib dinner from 6 to 9 p.m.; and the big climax on Sunday, Sept. 7.

Intermixed will be a pet show for the youngsters Saturday morning, Sept. 6; judging of costumes of the turn of the century; and the traditional Antique Mart, slated for the final three days of the Festival.

Hilberry and Bonstelle Extend Drama Season

The Hilberry and Bonstelle Theatres at Wayne State University, with a newly centralized box office to serve all patrons, have announced an extended performance schedule for the 1969-70 season. The total program will include thirteen productions and 218 performances.

The Hilberry, with one revival and five new productions in its repertory, will extend its season from 159 to 171 performances from mid-October through May. Chief increase is in week-day matinees, heavily patronized by high school students, many of whom were turned away last season because of sell-outs. The matinee schedule has been increased to three weekly, with some Wednesday evening performances cancelled to balance the work load for the acting company.

At the Bonstelle, the run of each of the six productions in the series will be extended over three week-ends instead of two as before. In addition, the theatre is scheduling five children's matinees, a Christmas and spring-time tradition at the Bonstelle.

The Hilberry schedule includes a revival of last season's production of Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar," opening in mid-October, Arthur Miller's "After the Fall," scheduled for late October opening, Moliere's "The Bourgeois Gentleman," being added in November, Shakespeare's "Macbeth" in January, Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac" in February, and one play to be announced later, and scheduled to join the repertory in the spring.

"The open spot is designed to make it possible to schedule a play which becomes available later," according to Leonard Leone, director of theatre at Wayne. "Or we may wish to pick something which seems especially suitable for the company after working together awhile. In any event, we want to keep things open for whatever exciting possibility arises," he said.

Hot Dogs--

CHICAGO—The International Hot Dog is now Intercelestial. The all-American treat, made world-famous by American servicemen and travelers, was carried aboard Apollo 11 by Astronauts Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins.

How did the Astronauts like the Hot Dogs? Apparently, a tremendous hit! One of the first requests received by U.S. Army laboratories, Natick, Mass. — where space meals are planned — was that the Hot Dog be included in the next two Apollo flights.

ACCORDING TO THE Secretary of the Sausage Council, Jacques Filiatreau, July — National Hot Dog Month — will hereafter be known as July — Intercelestial Hot Dog Month. Filiatreau unhesitatingly noted it was during Hot Dog Month that frankfurters were on the Moon Flight menu.

The Wieners carried aboard Apollo 11, according to food technicians at Natick, were exactly like those available here on Earth, except for their packaging. They were produced by a domestic meat processor under contract to the N.A.S.A. food program.

The Bonstelle season and opening dates are: Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt's musical "Celebration" (October 10), Tennessee Williams' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" (November 14), Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" (January 16), Donizetti's opera "Don Pasquale," produced in cooperation with the Department of Music Feb. 27), Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman" (April 10), and Kaufman and Hart's

"You Can't Take It With You" (May 8).

The children's play is "Jack and the Beanstalk," which also tours the greater Detroit metropolitan area on week-ends from January through May. Bonstelle matinees are scheduled December 6, 13, 30, and March 21 and 28.

Another Hilberry innovation will be a series of open dates during the last half of the season. These will be scheduled after public support for the plays in the repertory is clarified at the box office.

Schedule and ticket information for both theatres, and further information about the touring Children's Theatre, may be obtained by calling the Theatre Box Office at 577-2972. The Box Office is located in the lobby of the Hilberry Theatre at Cass and Hancock.

Civic Players Hit the Road

WESTLAND—Wayne Civic Players are rehearsing for their August 23 production of "For the Love of a Flea," a one-act written by Ralph Kelly of Plymouth.

Handling the director's duties will be Lois Tobin, with assistance from Millie

Roy. The cast of characters include Fred, an old lion, played by Danny Myers; Mabel, his wife, played by Sondra Vedock; John, a newly married zebra, played by Al La Croix; and Marsha, his wife, played by Dolly Duncan.

Done in satire, the play takes place by a water hole where the two couples meet each other one evening. The play details the humorous and human events which follow the meeting.

The Players will do the play for the American Community Theatre Association National Convention at the Ridgedale Playhouse in Royal Oak.

Theater Unit Needs Actors

Actors are needed by Wyandotte Community Theatre for their first show of the season, "Star Spangled Girl," a Neil Simon comedy.

The cast consists of two men and one woman. Casting will be held from 8 to 10 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 25 and 26, at the Loft, 271 Stoll, Wyandotte.

Consumer and Producer To Meet at State Fair

"Consumer Meets Producer"—a theme which has drawn an enthusiastic reception from farm and governmental organizations as well as from the public—will be repeated for the third year at the 120th Michigan State Fair, Aug. 22 - Sept. 1.

Purpose is to bring the urban consumer a closer understanding of the farmer and the processor.

E.J. (Jeff) Keirns, State Fair manager, announced that the number of displays tied directly to the theme has been increased to 22 this year—all bright, attractive, informative, and entertaining.

They will bring fair visitors the latest information about the modern miracles of food science, new methods of production and processing, and new products themselves.

A key exhibit will be that of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Director B. Dale Ball said it will tell the story of consumer protection services, such as food inspections and pollution controls, in Michigan — a leading agricultural state ranking first in many products. The exhibit will be located in a circus tent within the Agriculture Building.

On the milk scene, the American Dairy Association and the Dairy Council of Michigan have combined to tell the story of their services with an exhibit featuring life-size cow balloons, mobiles, and a miniature dairy barn. And the Michigan Animal Breeders Cooperative tells of work being done to boost the production of dairy cows.

Michigan's beans—the state is the "bean capital of the world"—will be shown in an exhibit in which an electric train carries all varieties from our state to the world. The state's annual bean crop would fill 10,000 box cars.

The Michigan Milk Producers Association will challenge visitors to identify various breeds of cows. The Food Science Department of Michigan State University will show new frozen dairy desserts and ice cream products.

The American Wool Council will show how wool has become a completely modern product—washable, absorbent, and wrinkle resistant.

Identification of meat cuts and information on meat pricing will be part of another exhibit. The hot dog and how it is made will be shown in another.

Apples, wines, potatoes, vegetables, and fruits will be shown in other displays, with Canada and border states over the holiday weekend."

Auto Club reminds that, statistically, trips of more than 25 miles from home have been proven safer than shorter trips. Of the 59 drivers involved in 35 fatal crashes over last year's Labor Day weekend, 69 percent were within 25 miles of home.

Fisher said most weekend travelers will confine trips to a 250-mile radius of home. The holiday officially begins at 6 p.m. Friday (Aug. 29) and concludes at midnight Monday (Sept. 1).

Heavy traffic, to the point of bumper-to-bumper congestion at times, is expected both Friday afternoon and evening and on Monday, from 2 to 10 p.m.

on most principal highways in the state.

Motorists, especially those pulling trailers or boats, are advised to plan trips to avoid travel during those peak periods.

AUTO CLUB'S "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" safe driving practices include:

* Start early and stop early.

* Stop for a refresher break at least once every three hours.

* Maintain at least one car length of space for each 10 miles an hour of speed.

* Use extra caution in passing.

* Use safety belts (shoulder harnesses if you have them) at all times, especially with children.

* Avoid alcohol.

* Be extra careful on two-lane roads where 28 of Michigan's 35 fatal crashes occurred over last year's Labor Day weekend.

UP-TO-THE-MINUTE reports of road and weather conditions, accommodations and safety tips will be broadcast regularly over the holiday period by 122 Michigan radio stations as part of Auto Club's "Holiday News Service."

"Motorists are advised to listen to their car radios for this information," Fisher said. "When a tie-up is reported, special bulletins will include information on alternate routes."

Anchor Block Wins Softball Crown

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

Blast WTA Engineers, 18-5

Anchor Block snapped mightily out of their late season slump to pummel WTA Engineers, 18-5 and take the regular season championship of the Romulus Adult Softball League.

Missing a trio of injured Rakotz brothers, Anchor Block still had more than enough guns to blast the Engineers back to the drawing boards.

Anchor pounded out an amazing 20 hits in the contest as their silent bats came alive. But it was WTA who drew first blood.

The Engineers jumped up with three runs in the very first inning to stun Anchor Block as singles by D. Smylie, D. McCluskey, and J. Debuscher and a double by K. Ramey did the damage.

Anchor Block quickly tied the knot when they came to the plate. L. Pennington and Rich Rakotz singled ahead of Al Ott's round-tripper which tied the score.

WTA edged into a slim lead when R. Zmuda singled in the second. L. Beschke reached base on an error and T. Block sent Zmuda across with a line single.

D. Skiff homered to open Anchor's third inning and again it was tied up, this time, 4-4. Then the bats began to really boom. Al Ott, J. Slater and C. Hazen all doubled and R. Spearman, Don Delano and K. Mientkiewicz added singles off WTA hurler P. McCluskey for a 9-3 Anchor bulge.

The fourth frame brought another hitting spree. Pennington singled twice in the same inning, R. Rakotz reached first on an error and Ott Mientkiewicz, J. Slater singled.

Hazen was given life at first on a miscue before B. Sozve. Delano and Skiff singled. The carnage brought in 8 more hits and Anchor Block led at the end of the fourth - inning, 17-4.

Smylie hit a home run for WTA in the fifth. McCluskey hit a triple but died there as Anchor's pitcher, B. Soave bore down and ended the small uprising, leaving the count, 17-5.

Anchor Block pushed over one more run before the end of the game mercifully ending the onslaught.

Big guns for the night were Al Ott with a 3-run homer, Skiff and Hazen also with round-trippers and Pennington, Ott and Delano with three hits each.

Anchor Block exploded for 20 hits in garnering their 18 scores and WTA Engineers slapped out 12 safeties in getting five runs.

By Manny Lentine
Athletic Director and Head Coach
Wayne St. Mary's High School

Before Tom Mooradian left for Paris he asked me to "fill in" for one week in his Sports Meridian Column. Now I know precisely how Tom feels about every Monday deadline. This is the fifth attempt at putting words together in the hope that the the result will be coherent and sensible.

But, I decided, why change now?" So, here goes.

With high school football practice about to begin all over the country, there is little doubt as to the content of this article.

FOOTBALL at ST. MARY's for 1969!!!!

All of us at St. Mary's are saddened at the loss of Leonard Natkowski as the assistant football coach. He is now serving in the same capacity at Wayne Memorial High School. Our loss is Wayne Memorial's gain.

I've been privileged to have Leonard Natkowski as my right hand man for five extremely enjoyable and successful years. During that time our football teams have compiled a very enviable record of 32-5-2; included was a perfect season (9-0) in 1966, the first in the history of St. Mary's school.

Needless to say, we are going to miss his assistance. He possesses many fine qualities so necessary in a high school coach. He is highly knowledgeable and competent in all phases of football, a very devoted individual who thinks nothing of putting in hours of extra work without asking "how much money is there in it", and as loyal a person as you could ever hope for. It is no surprise that the boys and parents admire and respect him.

Well, to the point of the football season coming up. We face a very tough schedule in that we actually have two new comers in the league. All the teams figure to be bigger, better and tougher.

St. Francis Xavier — a perennial title contender — has closed its doors, and their highly capable coach has been hired at Mt. Carmel of Wyandotte. It "just happened" that a few of the Xavier players metriculated at Mt. Carmel.

St. Andrew, St. Agatha, and St. Thomas figure to be very much improved over last year, and we certainly didn't have an "easy" time with any of them. St. John of Ypsilanti will have a new coach and therefore will be a question mark. They have enough lettermen returning to be a strong contender.

The new-comers in the league are St. Francis DeSales and Our Lady of Lourdes. This factor alone makes them definite unknowns. So — anything can happen.

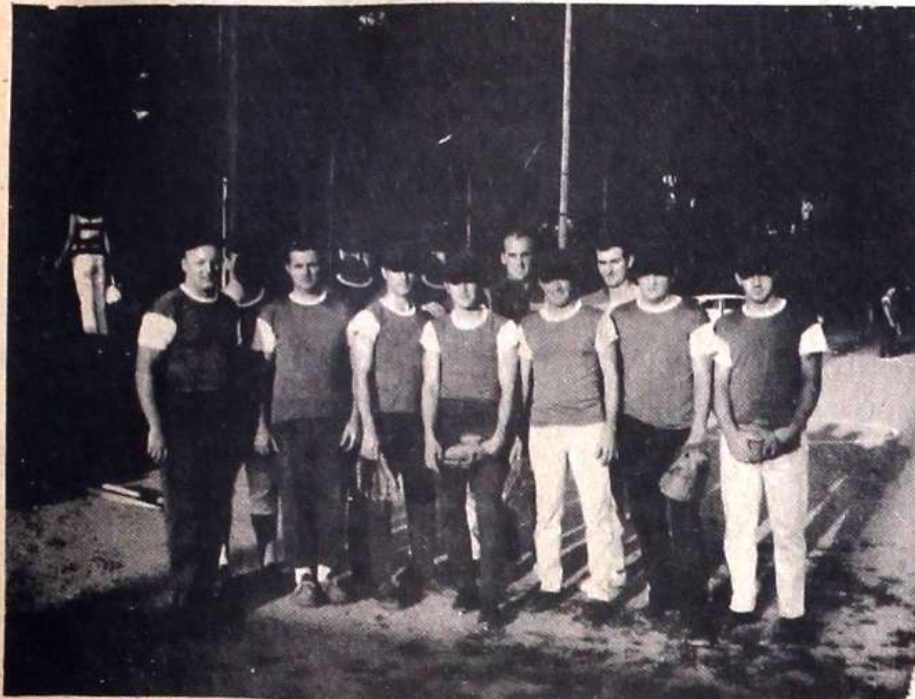

Where does St. Mary's fit into the title picture? Right on top! I like to believe that we have enough tradition, guts, desire, and ability to be on top when the dust clears.

As I mentioned to the players at our first meeting — "Anyone who doesn't believe we will go 9 and 0 might just as well go home and stay there, get a job, or go to another school. We don't want losers on the team — most certainly not before the season begins.

"We will not be out-conditioned; we will not be out-fought; we will not be out-prepared; we will not be out-psyched; after all of that, if we happen "not to win", it will be to a better team".

These are the challenges that confront us with a little less than two weeks (as of this writing) remaining before our first football practice at 9:00 A.M., on Monday, August 25th. We will go two sessions a day until school begins — including Saturdays and Sundays. The second session will be at 5:00 in full equipment. The morning sessions will be in "shorts and shoes". Equipment will be issued on Saturday at 2:00 P.M. Physicals and haircuts are mandatory at that time.

We are all eagerly awaiting the challenge of another football season. This is what makes the game so interesting. We will do our best — the angels can't do better.

ROMULUS SOFTBALL CHAMPS — Anchor Block came back after a late-season slump to wrap up the playoff championship as well as the regular league title in the Romulus Adult Softball League. They did it without three of the Rakotz brothers who were out with injured ankles. Shown, left to right, are: Chuck Hazen, Ken Mientkiewicz, Bill Soave, Rich Rakotz, Don Skiff, Les Pennington, Don Delano, Ralph Rakotz, Jack Slater, Manager Dave Rakotz, Rich Spearman and Al Ott. Not pictured are Junior Rakotz and Mike Zaher.

Walter's Bar, Gray's Down To Final Playoff

Walter's Bar edged Gray's team, 9-8, in the playoffs of the Romulus Adult Softball League Sunday as both 3rd basemen played outstanding ball.

Both teams now have one loss in the two-game knockout and faced each other last night in the final game.

Walter's third sacker, Roy Muck led his team's attack with 3-for-4 at the plate and scored three times. His counterpart for Gray's, Rick Tally, socked a three-run homer in the 6th to tie the game, drove in a run and scored in the 7th and wound up with 4 Rbi's for the game. It was a real show the hot corner guardsmen put on for the fans.

Jim Orm was the winning pitcher for Walter's while Perry Gray, manager of Gray's entered the game in the 7th inning because of injury and was tagged with the loss.

Walter's leaped into a 6-3 lead and held it until the bottom of the 6th when Tally blasted his circuit drive with two mates aboard to knot the count.

After rain delayed the contest for an hour, Walter's jumped up with three markers in the top of the 7th inning to take a 9-6 lead and it looked all over for Gray's.

But the boys from Walter's turned a little "gray" before it was over.

Gray's punched over two runs in the bottom of the 7th and had the tying run on third when the last batter grounded out to shortstop.

Romulus Township Clerk Joseph Perry threw out the first ball to Ellis Pennington,

Romulus Karate Classes To Start This Fall

The Romulus Recreation Commission passed a resolution on Tuesday, Aug. 12, to start a karate program this fall at Romulus High School.

The classes are slated tentatively for Mondays and Thursdays from 7-9 p.m. each night.

Master Edward B. Sell, Fourth Degree Black Belt, will conduct the instruction for the program which is open to all boys and girls over the age of five. Sell is the highest-ranked non-oriental in Korean karate, according to James Foley, head of the Romulus Recreation Dept.

There will be an assembly the first week of school to explain how the karate training will operate and answer any questions which may arise.

Everyone interested is encouraged to enroll when school opens.

ROMULUS PONY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS — The Solar Sunbeams rode to the Romulus Pony League title this summer on the strong right arms of Tom Madej and Frank Szczepanski, who also alternated in left field when not pitching. Szczepanski had a 4-1 mound mark and batted .700 and Madej won five and lost two while hitting .408. Other players shown and their batting averages are: first baseman Rich Moore, .339; second base Mike Hunter, .608; 3rd base Tom Evitts, .387; shortstop Rich Hadrick, .250; catcher Bill Evitts, .600; centerfield Randy Hall, .300; Rightfield Cliff Brandow, .391; Ray Rush played infield and outfield; Grey Ramm, outfield, batted .333; outfield Larry Menard, .150; outfield Dicky Meland, .130; Ken Campbell, outfield, .307 and outfield Larry Colvin, .166. The Sunbeams got bright leadership from Manager Jim LaFramboise and Coach John Evitts. Coach John Evitts.

Baum Funeral Home Buries Reformatory, 20-6

SECOND BEST—The WTA Engineers gave the Anchor Block team fits in the closing stages of the Romulus Adult Softball League season, but fell to their opponents in the finale, 18-5. But, the season was an exciting one and there's always next year! Pictured above, from left, D. Smylie, R. Zmuda, L. Beschke, D. McCluskey and M. Cox. Back Row, from left, K. Parker, T. Block, D. DeBusscher, R. Halvin, K. Ramey and R. Bigham.

"It's a Nice Place to Visit, But..."

Baum Funeral Home had much more success at the Milan Federal Reformatory last week than it had in the Romulus Adult Softball League.

The Baum boys could only muster a few victories at home, but the trip to Milan brought out the best in them.

They bombed the Reformatory team, 20-6, behind the 8-hit pitching of Ivan Kinshella. "Milan Red," the home pitcher, was combed for 24 hits.

E. Pennington had the only home-run for the Baum team, but they had plenty of other blasts to make up for the lack of round trippers. G. Coughlin, J. Hayes and Pennington had triples while R. Kampson and A. Stahl had two doubles apiece and Kinshella, Hayes, Pennington and J. Marinelli each had a two-bagger.

Kinshella and Stahl each rifled out four hits in five trips to the plate. E. Pennington had 3-for-4, R. Kampson had 3-for-5 and R. Pennington had two safeties in three appearances.

The contest was never in doubt as Baum bombed their opponents with 7 runs and 7 hits in the first inning. They added 7 more runs on 5 hits in the second while Milan was countering with a pair of tallies. It went from there to the final score of 20-6.

Milan's Ruffin hit one out of the park for the host team.

You might say that Baum Funeral Home really buried their opponent, 20-6.

In a scheduled second game of a double header, Baum jumped up with five runs in the opening frame and Milan scored three of its own. Eklund socked a home run for the Reformatory with two on to narrow the score to 5-3 before a downpour broke up the game.

Ivan Kinshella, Baum Manager, said he was happy that Jim Foley, Romulus Recreation Director, asked his team to participate in the action at the Milan Reformatory. He added that they look forward to going again to play Milan's "A" softball team which has only lost once this year.

Eric Sell Wins Par-3 Little League Classic

Eric Sell took the Romulus Little League Par-3 Golf Tournament championship Friday when he beat Rodney Leake, 44-41, in a 9-hole playoff.

The two boys had tied after 36 holes of regulation play at Tall Oaks Par-3 Golf Course on Wharman Road in Romulus.

The event was open to all boys between the ages of 10-15.

Recreation Director James Foley said the competition was spirited and good sportsmanship was exemplified by all the players.

Young Sell was especially happy about coming in first ahead of a host of other golfers.

Mature Chinook Run First Time Expect Salmon Fishermen To Double This Fall

Salmon fishermen and salmon watchers are expected to be twice as numerous this year as last along the Great Lakes to give Michigan its busiest fall tourism season, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

The anticipated increased interest in Michigan-brand salmon is due mainly to four factors:

Michigan will have its first mature chinook (King) salmon runs this fall.

Mature coho runs up four streams feeding into Lake Huron will take place for the first time.

Almost twice as many streams are expecting coho runs this fall as compared with a year ago.

With more streams expecting salmon, there will be added areas where spectators can watch the salmon being mechanically harvested at weirs and trucked away commercially.

Mature chinook — weighing an average 15 pounds — will be caught for the first time in this state as they prepare to make spawning runs up the Big Huron River in Lake Superior and the Little Manistee and Muskegon Rivers in Lake Michigan.

Coho will be taken from Lakes Michigan, Superior and Huron where 21 streams were stocked with coho during spring, 1968 — almost twice the number streams with mature runs last fall. (The accompanying Auto Club map shows the areas where coho and chinook have been planted and where salmon are expected to run this fall.)

A few coho jacks will be taken from the Sturgeon River in Lake Superior and the Big Cedar, St. Joseph, Manistique, Kalamazoo and Grand Rivers in Lake Michigan which were stocked for the first time this spring. "Few chinook taken this year will go over 20 pounds," states Jerry E. Fisher, Auto Club's touring manager. "Coho hooked will weigh anywhere from 8 to 18 pounds."

The largest recorded coho caught in Michigan weighed 21 pounds and was 32-inches long. It was hooked in Lake Michigan near Manistee in September, 1967.

Chinook usually mature at four years old as compared with three years for coho salmon. However, a few precocious chinook are expected to make spawning runs at three years old. It is expected that some salmon will not attempt upstream runs until they are five years old.

Although the only three-year-old chinook expected to be caught this year will come from Lakes Michigan and Superior, some Lake Huron chinook will be taken as they gather to spawn as two-year "jacks" at the Ocqueoc River near Huron Beach and the Thunder Bay River at Alpena. Early chinook runs are also expected near Lake Superior's Cherry Creek, at Marquette.

Trophies were passed out for tennis, golf and to Manager Ralph Rakotz of Anchor Block for winning the regular season title of the Romulus Adult Softball League.

In earlier playoff action last week, Gray's defeated Five Points, 10-5 and Walter's beat WTA Engineers, 5-1.

Last Wednesday, Gray's edged Walter's, 9-8 while WTA Engineers had to go 9 innings to eke out a 9-8 decision over Five Points and eliminate them.

Walter's Bar eliminated WTA the next day when they bombed them, 18-5.

Anchor Block, the regular season champ, goes to the Westland Inter-city slo-pitch Invitational where they encountered Highland Park this week in the one-game-elimination tournament.

PGA Event Entries Increasing

Initial entries for the Michigan Golf Classic indicate a strong starting field for this first annual P.G.A. event.

Tournament dates are September 4-7, 1969 at the Shenandoah Golf and Country Club, West Bloomfield, Mich. This is a $100,000 Tournament, with a first prize of $20,000 and a Dodge Charger for three years.

Tickets are available at most local golf courses. J.L. Hudson's...Grinnell's...Local Optimist...Jaycee and Elks Organizations at pre-tournament prices.

Supervisors Ask Report On Metro 'Jumbo' Jets

A progress report on preparations to accommodate the new 400-passenger "jumbo" jets at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport has been called for by a committee of county supervisors.

The request was made by the Transportation, Industrial and Commercial Development Committee of the Board of Supervisors after questions were raised by a former county supervisor.

The committee, headed by 24th District Supervisor, Edmund Bizak, asked for a written report from James M. Davey, managing director of the County Road Commission which operates the airport.

Davey told the committee verbally Aug. 13 that the new Boeing 747 jets are due to start using the airport in late 1970 or early 1971. "The last date we got is probably early 1971," he stated.

In a letter, the former county supervisor, A.E. Vallier, contended that one airline is scheduled to start operating Boeing 747s from Metropolitan Airport on Oct. 1, 1970.

Davey said he had asked Vallier to identify the airline, but Vallier refused.

Preparations to accommodate the big jets are part of the $200-million airport expansion and improvement program which includes additional baggage facilities, lengthening of two runways and development of another terminal complex south of the present terminal facilities.

Davey said the current poor market for government bonds has created uncertainties in the scheduling of the improvement program, but that the Road Commission would ask the airlines for advance landing fees, if necessary, in order to have the new baggage facilities and longer runways completed in time for the big jets.

Three other supervisors committees met during the Aug. 11-14 week.

The Personnel Activities Sub-Committee, chaired by Dist. 5 Supervisor, Freddie G. Burton, considered a list of salary adjustments recommended by the Civil Service Commission to bring various job classes into line with related classes.

In addition, members of the Board of Supervisors made an all-day study tour of the Port of Detroit on Tuesday, Aug. 12. They toured the various cargo terminals in Detroit and the Downriver area by bus, then took to a chartered boat to study the All-America channel and the path of the proposed channel extension.

The Health, Education and Welfare Committee, meeting Aug. 11, recommended that the County stop giving emergency grants to welfare recipients in cases where the State will not provide matching money. The action was taken after the committee was informed that a $100,000 appropriation from the Board of Supervisors has been overexpended by about $250,000 by the Wayne County Office of the Michigan Department of Social Services.

The committee's recommendation was due to come before the powerful Ways and Means Committee. In recommending the halt, the committee pointed out that welfare is a State responsibility.

The Judiciary Committee delayed action on a $1,605 increase in the proposed $20,880 budget for a new out-county branch office of the Circuit Court probation department, pending a more detailed report by the Board of County Auditors on the funding for the new office. The proposed location is at Fort and Southfield Road in Lincoln Park. Supervisor Eugene A. Sikora, of District 7, is judiciary chairman.

The Wayne County Building Authority awarded a contract for design of a 350-bed long-term care facility at Wayne County General Hospital to the architectural firm of Eberle M. Smith Associates, Inc. The Authority acted after considering proposals from several architects.

HELMET LAW RESTORED Cycle Law Lauded

Implementation of a law requiring special licensing of motorcycle drivers will go a long way toward increased traffic safety in Michigan.

"This new act," Secretary of State James M. Hare said, "not only will require motorcyclists to demonstrate their ability to handle such machines through a special examination, it will prohibit motorcycle dealers from renting or lending these vehicles to persons who are unqualified to operate them."

"My only regret is that the new law does not become effective until June 1, 1970. An earlier effective date would have been preferable because of the steady increase in the number of motorcycles being used in Michigan."

 MORE THAN 125,000 cycles were registered in fiscal 1969.

The Michigan Department of State, which issues all motor vehicle operator licenses, is already preparing for the new law's provisions, Hare said.

Department officials have begun work on a special examination for motorcycle drivers and on a method of providing for the endorsement on a regular automobile driver's license.

Under existing law, any holder of a valid automobile driver's license could operate a motorcycle, regardless of experience and ability.

 "THIS SITUATION has created a needless safety hazard," Hare said. "Any qualified automobile driver could buy and operate a motorcycle. Further, he could-if a motorcycle dealer was willing-rent or borrow a machine and take it out into traffic, possibly for the first time he had ever been on such a vehicle.

"The new law will place responsibility upon the dealer to determine whether or not a person holds the special motorcycle endorsement on his automobile driver's license. It also prohibits the individual owner or renter of a motorcycle from letting an unqualified person operate the machine."

Hare also praised the recent enactment of another law restoring the requirement that all motorcycle drivers and passengers wear safety helmets. This law becomes effective Sept. 1.

An earlier helmet law was overturned by the courts with a resulting increase in motorcycle accident deaths during the following year.

Dairy Farm Size Grows

The average Michigan dairy farm has doubled in size in 10 years.

In 1958, Michigan State University's farm record program showed the average dairyman had 27 cows.

The 1968 report for cooperators in MSU's TelFarm record program showed the "average-sized" dairy farm had 54 milking cows.

13 Area School Districts Without Teacher Pacts

The Michigan Education Association (MEA) reported that settlements are near in two MEA Districts this week, with 13 more Districts still negotiating.

Richard Croll, Area Center Director of the MEA, said that tentative settlements have been reported in Garden City and Fairlane school districts.

"Last year at this date, 21 of the 26 Wayne County districts whose teachers are represented by the MEA were without contract settlements. So the pace of settlement this year is improved, but most of these 13 remaining negotiations are approaching the serious stage," Croll said.

In the Livonia District, Croll reports that both teams are bargaining continuously, but no apparent progress is being made. He added that representatives of the Livonia Education Association are expected to ask for mediation very soon. Croll said, noting the MEA view, "This is a very serious situation as school board negotiators continue to be unrealistic and now appear to be stalling."

Croll reported that State Mediator Harry Reinfelder conducted the first mediation session in the Wayne Community School District last Thursday. He noted that the unfair labor practices charges filed against the District by the teachers has been temporarily postponed pending the results of mediation.

Mediation is also taking place in the Westwood School District with State Mediator Daniel Gallagher presiding. Two MEA staff members are also assisting in the bargaining.

In the Plymouth School District, negotiations have resumed following the approval of two millage requests a week ago Monday. Croll said that the Plymouth group is hopeful of an early settlement.

Croll said that a mediation session was held last Thursday in the Romulus School District with State Mediator Daniel Gallagher presiding. Two MEA staff members are also assisting in the bargaining.

William Johnson, the state-assigned mediator of the Michigan Labor Relations Board, has called a mediation session for the Huron District for tomorrow (Thursday). Croll said the economics remains the major issue.

State Police Assist Guidance Program

EAST LANSING—A guidance program for teen-age boys; many of them fatherless and facing the tough problem of growing up, is getting a helping hand from the Michigan State Police.

In cooperation with the Family Service Agency of Lansing, the State Police Training Division hosts two groups of boys ranging in age from 12 to 15 years twice weekly at the East Lansing Headquarters.

Troopers play an important role in the program, allowing the boys to relate to enforcement authority on a personal basis.

 PLANNED PROGRAM schedules at police headquarters include swimming, field trips and demonstrations of police activity.

The youths are given the opportunity to see tracking dogs in action, watch firearms safety and tour the compound buildings.

The seven week program, emphasizing police services, is being supervised by Trooper Ritchie T. Davis of police Personnel Division and Corporal LeRoy Fladseth of Training Division. Jack Sattler, case worker assigned to the Family Service Agency, directs the cooperative program.

DETROIT—The Wayne County Intermediate School District is going to move into new offices, located at 1500 Kales Building, 76 West Adams.

The new office and new telephone number (313) 224-2950 will be in operation Sept. 1, 1969.

Variety, Opulence to Mark Annual State Fair

For young and old and in-between, the 120th Michigan State Fair will offer the biggest bargain of the year in educational, agricultural and industrial exhibits plus a tremendous free entertainment program for all fair-goers.

The State Fair gets under way Friday, Aug. 22 at 8 a.m. and runs for 11 days through Monday, Sept. 1. E.J. (Jeff) Keirns, the State Fair general manager, said attendance is expected to top the million mark.

Variety is the spice of life for fair-goers. Competing for attention will be big-name entertainment stars and baby lambs, lively music and prize cakes, pie-eating kids and go-go grannies.

The theme for this year's fair is "Consumer Meets Producer," the third year it has been used. It simply means that the State Fair gives city dwellers a good chance to get acquainted with the work of his country cousins—those who put the meat on his table and the wool on his back.

Twenty-two exhibits will be built directly around this theme, stressing better knowledge for the consumer.

In addition, of course, visitors will visit a record number of exhibits of prize livestock and agricultural products. On display from Michigan farms will be the best in cattle, horses, sheep, swine, poultry, pigeons, and rabbits, plus exhibits of grains, vegetables, nuts, honey, and fruits.

Industrial, business, and governmental exhibits will feature various products and information.

In the Community Arts Building, the state's homemakers, hobbyists, and artists will show their prize work. Baked and canned goods, needlework, and flowers will be on display, as will a record number of paintings and sculptures from both amateur and professional artists.

Auditorium programs and exhibit hall demonstrations will center around fashions, foods, and how-to-do-it information.

All exhibits and programs are free to the fair visitors.

Also free are the 15 horse shows in the Coliseum. Always crowd-pleasers, they will feature quarter-horses and Palominos Aug. 22-24; Arabians, Morgans, and big draft horses Aug. 25-28; and ponies, Appaloosas, saddlebreds, and Tennessee walkers Aug. 29 - Sept. 1.

Arthur Godfrey, the television and radio star, will perform Aug. 29-31 at the horse shows with his trained Palomino, Goldie. Featured at all the horse shows will be the drill team of the Detroit Mounted Police.

Horses also will be in the spotlight at 10 a.m. Aug. 29 and 30 in front of the Grandstand, as the pony pulling and draft horse pulling contests are held.

In the Music Shell, an all-star lineup of entertainment programs is set—all free.

Appearing from Aug. 22 through Aug. 25 will be Al Hirt and his band. He's considered America's greatest jazz trumpeter. The Baja Marimba Band, with that Tijuana Brass sound, will perform Aug. 22-23. Jerry Butler, a young Chicago singing star, will be there Aug. 24-25.

The State Fair Honors Band, made up of the finest high school musicians in Michigan, also will present concerts the first weekend of the fair.

The Music Shell lineup for the rest of the fair includes:

Singer Bobby Vinton Aug. 26-28; the singing-dancing Brothers & Sisters Aug. 26-28; top comedian Stu Gilliam Aug. 26-28; singer-actor John Davidson Aug. 29-30; the Three Degrees Aug. 29-30; triple-treat entertainer Roy Clark Aug. 31-Sept. 1; the singing Cowhill Family Aug. 31-Sept. 1; and movie TV star James Darren Aug. 31-Sept. 1.

The free Grandstand programs will feature the Hurricane Hell Drivers Aug. 22-26. This is one of the largest, spectacular auto thrill shows in the world. The Nashville-Hawaiian Country Music All Star Revue will also perform at the Grandstand Aug. 22-26. Four Detroit Tiger stars will hold a baseball clinic, Aug. 27. The Gentle Ben Show, starring the 650-pound bear who's a television star, will be featured Aug. 27-Sept. 1, with singer Diane Shelton and others. Also at the Grandstand will be concerts by "Up With People", a singing group of 100 Detroit area teen-age boys and girls, on Aug. 29 and 30, and the Michigan State Fair Boxing Championships, Aug. 30.

All sorts of contests are scheduled during the fair. Pitchers, baton twirlers, freckle-faced and pony-tailed kids, beauty queens, and strong-lunged hog and husband callers will be among the many competitors.

On the Teen Scene, top musical groups from the state will compete in two categories—"rock" and "soul." The Teen Scene also will feature sports demonstrations and career information.

The Gay Midway will have new rides and shows plus all the old favorites like the merry-go-round and ferris wheel. There'll be a kiddie midway for the very young.

Tombstone Territory, a reproduction of a Western town, will have an hourly "shootout at the OK Corral," with Hollywood stunt men showing how the famous gunbattle went.

Each day at the fair has been given a special designation. The lineup:

Friday, Aug. 22—Grand Opening Day, with gates opening at 8 a.m. A parade in downtown Detroit will be held at 7 p.m. Friday.

Saturday, Aug. 23—Veterans Day, with all veterans admitted to the grounds free until 3 p.m. Featured will be marching music and drill teams, with a ceremony at the Veterans Monument.

Sunday, Aug. 24—Religion Day, Sunrise Service at 8 a.m. in the Music Shell with Dr. Robert Harvey Bodine, directing minister of the Metropolitan Methodist Church of Detroit, as speaker. Everyone admitted free to the grounds until 8 a.m.

Monday, Aug. 25—Old Timers Day, with many features and contests for our senior citizens, including kitchen bands and the "Go-Go Grannies" accordion band. Senior citizens admitted free until 3 p.m.

Tuesday, Aug. 26—Children's Day, with free admission for children until 3 p.m. and reduced prices on Midway rides until 5 p.m. Children can win prizes in an essay contest, writing on "What I Learned at the State Fair." Also on this day, a salute to Michigan Fair managers.

Wednesday, Aug. 27—Beauty Queens Day, with the crowning of Miss Michigan State Fair.

Thursday, Aug. 28—Governor's Day, Agriculture Day and Legislators Day, honoring Gov. Milliken, our farmers and lawmakers.

Friday, Aug. 29—Family Day, with ceremonies feting the "family of the year."

Saturday, Aug. 30—Michigan Mayors Day, with scores of urban executives expected to attend as special guests.

Sunday, Aug. 31—International Day, with programs by various ethnic groups. A second Sunrise Service at 8 a.m. in the Music Shell, with Dr. Charles E. Morton, pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Detroit, as speaker. All admitted free until 8 a.m.

Hearing Tests Free At Fair

Michigan State Fair patrons will have the opportunity to receive free hearing tests for the tenth consecutive year.

From Aug. 22 through Sept. 1, the Detroit Hearing & Speech Center in cooperation with the Michigan Association for Better Hearing & Speech will conduct the screening in a mobile trailer, located at the southwest corner of White Ball.

Since early detection leads to early correction, Raymond F. Lindhal, executive director of the Center, urges Fair patrons to stop in for a free test.

He noted that of the 2,837 individuals tested last year, 631 (22 per cent) had some hearing loss. There was a 30 per cent failure among the men whereas only 15 per cent of the women failed.

The ski season at Yosemite National Park begins in December and ends in April.

Monday, Sept. 1—Labor Day, and closing day of the 120th Michigan State Fair.

Admission to the fair is $1.50, with children 8 through 12 at 50 cents and children 7 and under free when accompanied by an adult.

Free Tapes, Speakers On Urban Crisis

Compelling programs related to the crisis in urban America are available to groups in Western Wayne without charge.

Speakers and films may be obtained through the Speakers Bureau of New Detroit, Inc.

Programs may be scheduled by church or school groups service clubs and civic organizations of Wayne.

NDI speakers are available to cover a wide range of topics related to the urban crisis.

Speakers are drawn from the NDI staff and throughout the metropolitan area.

Supplementary reading materials, tapes and other resources are also available for use.

Representatives of interested groups may write Speakers Bureau, New Detroit, Inc., No. 1515, 211 W. Fort St., Detroit, 48226 or call 961-9160 to schedule a program.

More Blood Needed During the Summer

During the summer months the Red Cross reports that blood collections suffer a seasonal slump. Yet, the increasing number of warm weather accidents brings about a greater demand for blood.

The visit of a bloodmobile makes it easy for area residents to donate blood. This donation may be used to replace blood used by a patient, to add to a group account or to build up a self-account against future needs.

For the convenience of area donors, a bloodmobile will be held at the West Regional Office of the Red Cross, 2440 S. Telegraph, Dearborn, on Thursday, August 28, from 2 to 8 p.m.

Call CR 4-5450 to make an appointment to donate.

Ford Employment, Pay Hit Record

Ford Motor Company worldwide employment and payrolls for the first half of 1969 were at the highest levels of any six-month period in the company's history.

Ford U.S. operations and subsidiaries around the world employed an average of 435,502 men and women during the first half of the year—19,730 more than the previous high average 415,772 employed in the comparable 1968 period.

GROSS AVERAGE hourly earnings of $4.32 for Ford's U.S. hourly rated employees set a record. The comparable 1968 figure was $4.21.

Ford U.S. payrolls (also including Philco-Ford) were $1,327,666,000 in the January-June period, against $1,343,041,000 in the first six months of 1968.

January-June payrolls for Michigan Ford employees were increased $15,678,000 to a record $661,555,000. The 1968 first-half Michigan payroll was $645,877,000.

Voter Says McKinney Is Nice Guy, Too!

TO THE EDITOR:

During all of this campaign, everybody is talking about Mayor Tom Brown being a nice person. Well, who said Gene McKinney wasn't a nice guy, too. All this talk makes McKinney look like he is mean and nasty. I've known Gene McKinney for a long time and he is a man of honor, friendly and honest, even if he is not a big glad-hander with a mouth full of smiling teeth. I think your newspaper has given McKinney a bad image. He is just as nice as Mayor Brown, and I'm voting for McKinney. Gene may not be a big cheese, but he is a hard worker and he is very smart, just what we need for a change at City Hall.

Letter Writer Says Nice Is Not Enough

TO THE EDITOR:

Since the last letter I sent to your newspaper appeared, I have had calls from two persons who felt that I was being unfair to Mayor Tom Brown. I'm sorry, but I still think I am right.

I don't care how nice a guy Mayor Brown is. I don't care if he is kind to animals, just so long as he runs an honest and good City government. Our City government is messed up, and with City Council only sitting up there once a week, I don't believe everything is their fault.

I know the Mayor has Westland's best interests in mind, but he can't do the job, so what good is he. I think he's a good guy, but as a Mayor his administration has been lousy.

Brown's Brochure Makes Reader Join McKinney

TO THE EDITOR:

I hadn't made up my mind about Tom Brown or Gene McKinney until I saw the leaflets from both candidates.

But when Mayor Brown points to the Police Department and recreation program as his proudest achievements I have to go along with McKinney.

When there's money in the budget for 14 extra policemen and the Mayor doesn't do anything to hire them, I don't think that's much to be proud of. And as for the recreation program? He won't fool anyone on that, especially the people who had to look someplace else for a softball league for adults and some sort of teenage program for the kids.

If these are the only things the Mayor can brag about, our City's in trouble. Then it really is time for some new blood.

Claim Sexologists Are Sex Education Radicals

TO THE EDITOR

Somehow the professional sexologists got their labeling all mixed up. By definition a radical is: "One who advocates fundamental and drastic reforms or changes by direct and uncompromising methods"

Based on this definition - How is it that the concerned parents in Michigan and across the nation get labeled "Sex Education Radicals"? The concerned parents are not the ones who are advocating drastic changes in the teaching of an untried and untested kindergarten and elementary sex education program in our Michigan schools.

The concerned parents are not the "radicals" when, as reported in last Friday's Detroit News, 50 trainer-teachers were told during a Human Sexuality Course at the Merrill-Palmer Institute by Dr. Carlfred B. Broderick that, "A moral value system rather than righteous 'thou shalt not's' should underscore sex education."

What "thou shalt not's" is he referring to - "The Ten Commandments"?

One of Dr. Broderick's values in this system is called Situational Ethics - the new morality - which holds: "that if a couple loves each other and if neither is injured by it, sex is good."

Evidently, it doesn't matter how many times a teenager falls in love - sex is still good as long as nobody gets hurt by it. Just five years ago there wasn't a church in this country which would have accepted this philosophy.

Another value mentioned is called Existential, which only requires that sex be a good experience for those involved, that it be meaningful, relevant or mind expanding.

I wonder how many of these 50 trainer-teachers are going to buy this new "Hippie" philosophy, especially if these represent 25 Detroit area school systems and are being trained as consultants for whatever sex education program their districts approve. With friends like this, our schools certainly don't need any enemies.

Let's face it, parents, the sexologists are pushing one of the most "radical" programs ever introduced into our public schools - "A California type sex education program starting in kindergarten - using the new morality of Situational Ethics" and the sexologists have labeled all parental opposition, medical opposition and opposition from members of the clergy as being outdated, old fashioned and "radical". How ridiculous can you get?

So, let's set the record straight-The sexologists are the "Sex Education Radicals", not the concerned parents.

Mom Is Burned Up Over Many Things

TO THE EDITOR:

Pursuant to your article on the Garden City Major League Baseball City Championship in the August 6th edition, I would like to express my astonishment and utter disgust. I have never read an article so completely void of compassion. The author, rather than expressing the sportsmanship shown by players of both teams, the thrill of all concerned in being able to participate in such an awesome event, and the anxieties of each of these young contenders, ridiculed and disillusioned all boys involved.

I, as a parent, was extremely proud of my son and his team, as a team. They were the epitome of true sportsmanship and complete teamwork. No one individual took undeserved bows; they each knew a win was never gained by one man's efforts but rather the efforts of well executed teamwork. In viewing all teams involved in our league, as well as teams of other leagues, it was obvious good sportsmanship was foremost in the plan of their endeavors.

Mr. Wes Wishart, Manager, and Mr. Bob "Pops" Chovich, Coach of "The Bills," deserve special recognition and commendation for their marvelous job as instructors of our youth. A mother could expect no finer example than that set by these two men. The boys on "The Bills" were so proud of their Manager and Coach you could see their admiration in every glance.

When a team is fortunate enough to receive men of this calibre, no greater reward could be extended them than the total admiration of their proteges. With this affection and sheer desire to please, these young lads won 17 to 19 games to become Garden City Little League City Champs. I might add, they were undefeated the last 12 games.

Congratulations "Bills" on your Championship and a special pat-on-the-back "Orioles" for a good, exciting game.

A sincere thank you Mr. Wishart and Mr. Chovich for a job well done and for the lessons in good-sportsmanship and humility received by my son.

Wayne Postman Protests Proposed 'Humor' Article

TO THE EDITOR:

Recently our office was told that your newspaper wanted to do some articles on the Postman!

We are supposed to write on a piece of paper amusing things that have happened to us on our tours of duty.

Let me tell you something. We as letter Carriers resent this sort of clown advertisement and ridicule!

The dignity of our job is being taken away, and in it's place, the symbol of the Post Alphabets TV Clown appears.

If you have room in your paper for Postman, why don't you print articles about the Postal Corporation? Why don't you write about the poor wages of the Letter Carrier? You can tell the Public to write their Congressman and get us a raise.

We had a man quit the Wayne Post Office Department for a higher paying job as a garbage truck driver.

At a time like this we need dignity, higher salaries and better job incentives, or we will not be able to recruit the high personnel to deliver the mail.

This is your Mail Service, but if you don't care, just throw this letter in the waste basket like the last letter I sent the Wayne Eagle.

Relative Corrects Error On Lumber Yard Story

TO THE EDITOR:

I wish to make a correction about the history of Hilliard's and Reiser Lumber Yard.

The hard labor and long hours that my father and brother had to struggle through gained the good will of the community.

It was known as the Miner J. Hilliard Lumber Yard for the first two years. He could only afford one horse. His son Harold (Rip) had to clean and feed the horse, and sometimes makes deliveries before he went to school. After school, he hauled coal or lumber until late in the night.

Anthony Reiser had a yard at Inkster. My father suggested the merger which became known as Hilliard and Reiser.

Few people might remember that Miner Hilliard came to Wayne in 1910 to superintendent the "Collapsible Box Factory." He lost money with several businessmen, when the inventor Dr. Sheppard, skipped to Canada and the factory folded.

My father died in 1917, but the estate was not probated until 1920. At that time, my mother Theresa Reiser Hilliard, sister Florence H. Gleason and myself were bought out by my brother, who retained one-fourth interest in the partnership until his death in March 1963.

Brown Much Abused By City Councilmen

TO THE EDITOR:

Much has been said by the numerous politicians seeking election and by various newsmen in their editorial comments; I would like to add some of my own thoughts regarding the coming election and some of the candidates.

I would like to point out that Thomas H. Brown, our Mayor, has been the target of abuse hurled at him by some members of the City Council, all of which is unwarranted; the Mayor has been blamed for things for which the Council is to blame. Naturally it would be to the advantage of a candidate seeking the office of Mayor if he could in any way discredit him.

The present Mayor has done an exceptionally good job during his term in office, especially with the difficulties he has had with certain members of the Council.

It is my hope and belief that Thomas H. Brown, a good man and a great Mayor, will be elected by a surprisingly great majority and that we will again see a familiar face on the City Council, as well as other changes in Council Seats, to assure a smooth-running and more efficient administration.

Mayor Brown is one of the few truly dedicated men who has been elected by the people in this area.

I have resided in the Township for 28 years and in the areas of Westland for the past 12 years and I feel qualified to make a judgment of the local situation. I might add that after having lived for 60 years a person acquires a certain amount of wisdom or "savvy" which invites an attentive ear for some very serious thinking and soul-searching in the coming election.

Kay De Bord Earns Praise for Youth Story

TO THE EDITOR:

I'm enjoying your weekly paper, and I wish to compliment you on the great improvement in every way by your paper in just the time since I left Wayne last October.

I agree fully with Kay DeBord's article concerning youth, and the responsibility parents are neglecting to assume. Her sentiments are mine, and I wished it could have been on a front page.

I am a mother of two grown daughters, and a grandmother of four, two of whom are students in the Wayne Public Schools. I always hope to always be alert and interested in the problems of the day.

Brown Likes Apartments

TO THE EDITOR:

I am supporting Mayor Tom Brown because he is smart enough to know that apartments in Westland are not necessarily bad. We have a lot of tax base from apartments, and I am glad the Mayor has not tried to slow apartments down like the Council has. The Council doesn't want apartments in order to please the voters. Mayor Brown has done what is best for the City by letting apartments come in.

Protests Coverage of School Participation

TO THE EDITOR:

I am once again writing in protest to the Wayne Eagle's poor and incomplete coverage of school participation events. In the paper for the week of July 30 you covered Monday evening's centennial parade and the various contests. The article in question dealt solely with the parade and listed the float and band awards. The band winning the "best sounding band" award was listed as the Wayne Memorial High Marching Band.

This is totally unfair and untrue, as the group in question was the Wayne High and John Glenn bands combined. It is unfair to not recognize John Glenn's band as well as Wayne High's, as it and its director were just as much a part of the total product and its members put forth just as many hours in long, hot rehearsals.

By being so obviously partisan toward Wayne Memorial High, your paper is fostering the king of friction that the two schools have worked so hard to avoid.

More complete and unprejudiced coverage of future school events would be much appreciated.

Inmate Urges Kids To Lead 'Straight' Life

TO THE EDITOR:

I am writing this in hopes that it will keep a lot of young kids out of trouble or even prison. I hope you will print this for a guy who was too stupid to listen to the ones who wanted to help me stay out of a place like this.

I am only 19 years old, but I have been on probation three times; and I still ended up in prison. I wanted to have a name like "Al Capone" or somebody like him. But this kind of life is too tough for me and a lot of other guys who are in here with me.

You guys who are in the age group from 10 to 21 years and want to do things like B & E, and stealing cars, or robbing people with a gun, or anything against the law -- you better think twice before you do something you will be sorry for later, like me.

The only thing I can think of to say is take it from me and go straight, or you might end up in the same place I am right now, trying to think of some way to try to stop a lot of young kids from getting on the wrong road in life.

That's where I was, on the wrong road, but I am on the right road now. Well, the rest is up to you, I guess. Just remember, you're in with the crowd, until you get busted, then you're on your own.

Den Mother Thanks ANP

TO THE EDITOR:

We of Cub Scout Pack 860 would like to thank you most sincerely for your kind generosity towards our recent Cub Scout Picnic, Sunday, July 27.

Our picnic was a tremendous success, and we owe this success in part to your participation.

Again let me send our thanks from our Cub Scouts, their leaders and the Cub Scout movement.

Big Salute Is Given To 'Salute to '69'

TO THE EDITOR:

Bouquets to those of you who supported by your attendance the "Salute to '69" pageant given in commemoration of the 100th birthday of Wayne.

Those of you who did not attend you missed a good show, a living story of the history of Wayne, performed by your friends and neighbors, some who forfeited well-earned vacations and play time to help make the pageant a success.

Many long hours of practice and rehearsals went into making a most memorable presentation possible.

The time and talents that were all contributed voluntarily represented a cross section of the community at large. The cast members were all amateurs with the exception of the fabulous Wayne Civic Players.

Under the professional skill of the directors Robert and Phyllis Shelfaw, the show took form and was molded into a living, moving spectacle of history and patriotism.

It was disappointing to see that the efforts of all those who gave generously of time and talents were not given the wholehearted support of the community.

You may never see another Centennial in Wayne, but in the rare exception that you do, please remember to be a little more generous with your applause. It is food and drink to those performing for your pleasure.

"Salute to '69," we salute all those who made it possible.
